BUSINESS NOT VERY BRISK

The Diamond on Saturday night reminded one of a Coney Island scene
on a busy day.

The Salvation Army, Free Methodists, two song venders, a blind man and his wife and two fakirs, one of which had a trick which occupied considerable space beside the soldiers' monument. He sold three balls for a nickle and the purchaser was given a prize for throwing the balls through holes in the canvas.

Chief Thompson concluded that the game was a dangerous one, the Diamond being crowded with people, and had some careless individual missed
the canvas some one would have been hit; so the city moved him to Broadway.

John Dungan was very drunk on Second street Saturday night and concluded to take a sleep. He lay down
across the pavement and Chief Thompson found him in that position shortly
afterward and requested that he
leave a little room for pedestrians to pass. This he refused to do and sassed the officer.

The patrol was called and he was taken to jail. At the hearing today
he was fined $5 60.

F. Commer was arrested Saturday
by Chief Thompson on a complaint
made by Mrs. Poland, with whom he boards, charging him with insulting
and using abusive language to her. He pleaded guilty and was assessed $5 60,
which he paid.

B. Hayes was so drunk on Sixth street Sunday night that he was unable to walk, and Chief Thompson
took him to jail to rest for a while.
He pleaded guilty to intoxication
when brought before the mayor and
was fined $5 60. He paid the amount
and was released.

Mike Sullivan, in company with two
companions, were celebrating Saturday night in the vicinity of the Murphy pottery and in some manner became involved in a fight with a stranger. Sullivan was badly used up, having been kicked in the eye and otherwise bruised.

Sullivan was so drunk he scarcely
knew how it happened, but claims he
can identify the man who did the kicking. He was brought to city hall
and a physician summoned, who fixed
up the eye, and Mike was permitted
to stop at the jail until this morning.

An attempt will be made to round
up the people who made the assault.

Sophia Walker Says That William D.
Walker Has Deserted
Her.

Lisbon, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs.
Sophia Walker, of Lisbon, has sued for
a divorce from William D. Walker, who now resides in Pittsburg. The
parties were married in Bridgeport

five years ago, and the wife charges
desertion. She also asks for alimony
and the custody of a minor child.
Mrs. Walker is the daughter of Geo.
E. Evans, manager of the American
tin plate mill in this city.

A HANDSOME DONATION.

MRS. E. PICKERING, OF PITTS-BURG, GIVES TO THE

St. Stephen's Church All the Carpets,
Rugs and Mats Needed to Furnish the Edifice.

St. Stephen's church has received a very handsome donation from Mrs.
E. Pickering, of Pittsburg, a prominent member of the Episcopal church
of that city, who is much interested
in the work in this city.

Mrs. Pickering was seen Saturday
by Rev. E. Weary and agreed to donate all carpet necessary for the furnishing of the church. She has also donated the rugs needed for the
sanctuary and the mast for the tower
and vestibules.

The mats will be made to order for
the church, and will have the name
of the church worked in them.

The carpet will be very handsome
and body Brussels.

The donation will save the church
several hundred dollars.

TO VOTE AGAIN.

PRESBYTERIANS WILL HAVE
CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

It Will be Held One Week from Next
Wednesday Evening When Pastor
May be Selected.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church will soon be given another chance to vote on a pastor.

The announcement has been made
that a congregational meeting will be held Wednesday evening, August 29,
one week from next Wednesday evening.

A number of candidates have been heard since Rev. Fullmer declined a
call to the church, and it is thought
a selection will be made at the meeting and a call extended.

THE PRESS BROKE

AND GEORGE CRAWFORD LOST
HIS LIFE.

A Flying Piece of Machinery Struck
Him in the Fore-
head.

Lisbon, August 20.—(Special.)— George Crawford, pressman at the upper tile works here, was instantly
killed this afternoon by the bursting
of the press.

A piece of the machinery struck
him in the forehead, and he was thrown 20 feet across the press.
Crawford was a married man and
leaves a wife and two children.

CHINA WANTS CONGER APPOINTED.

Special to News Review.

Washington, Aug. 20.—China has
asked the United States to appoint
Minister Conger or some other Ameri-
can official with authority to open negotiations for the establishment of peace, and fix definite terms of settlement of the present trouble.

A similar peace application has been
sent to all the other powers.

A Severe Ducking Saturday Night
and They Are Not Likely
to Forget It.

THE JANITOR WAS MAD

He Don't Like People to Use the Church Vestibule For a
Eating Place.

IT WILL PROBABLY STOP

For several weeks parties have been
using the alley vestibule of the First Presbyterian church on Saturday
nights as a place to eat watermelon
and cantaloupes. They always forget
to take the rinds and seeds with them
and every Sunday morning Janitor
Broone had a mess to clean up.

Last Saturday night a couple hid
themselves to the vestibule taking
with them a luscious melon. Janitor Broone spied them and went after a bucket of water. When he returned
they had just finished getting the
seeds out of the melon and were preparing to have their feast.

The janitor softly opened the vestibule door and let fly with the water.
He washed the melon and seeds off
the vestibule, while the parties left
in a hurry. After they had fully decided what had happened they called
the janitor hard names and threatened
him with arrest, but he calmly gathered up the remains of their intended
feast and carried them to the furnace.

Janitor Broone has decided that people cannot lunch in that vestibule and
intends to keep a good watch in the future.

KILLED A DOG.

BODY LEFT ON THE TRACK SEV-ERAL DAYS.

Street Car According to Law Must Bury Animals Killed by Their Employees.

A street car killed a dog near Laughlin's pottery several days ago,
and the remains have been lying
there ever since. Patrons of the line
have been objecting to its presence
and had notified the health authorities, who have ordered the body removed.

It is a fact that is perhaps not generally known that the same regulations apply to street car companies
in the disposition of animals killed by
them as that which governs the railroads.

The law requires that the companies
remove the animals immediately
after they are killed, and the local health authorities have nothing whatever to do with such cases.

WEBB WASN'T OUT.

If the Decision of the Umpire Had
Been Correct the Game Today
Wouldn't Have Been Necessary.

In the last Shamrock-Eclipse game
Webb fell coming home and Godwin
picked him up and practically carried
him across the plate, but Umpire Howard called him out.

The decision was questioned at the
time and somebody asked information

from the Pittsburg Dispatch, receiving the following answer:

W. F. K., East Liverpool says: "A
is on second base, B comes to bat and cracks out a two-base hit. A tries to score but stumbles and falls down
with 10 feet of the home plate. C,
who is coaching at third, assists A to
the plate. The umpire calls A out for C's interference. Is the decision correct?"

According to Hank O'Day, the
league umpire who officiated at the Pittsburg-Brooklyn game Saturday,
the umpire could not call the player
out for interference, the only thing he could do being to put the coacher out
of the game.

Under the circumstances and allowing that Howard had no right to put Godwin out of the game his decision
was morally right.

BASSING BURNED.

STEAM CAME THROUGH A PIECE
OF GAS PIPE

Which He Had Placed in a Tub of Water for the Purpose
of Cooling.

Willim Bassing, of Fourth street,
an employe of the Thompson pottery,
was severely burned about the face
Saturday.

Bassing was repairing the wagon
which he was driving and had heated
a piece of gas pipe for the purpose
of enlarging a hole in the shaft. The pipe became too hot and Bassing attempted to cool it by putting it in a
tub of water.

The steam made by the red hot iron
coming suddenly in contact with the
water came back through the pipe,
striking Mr. Bassing full in the face.

The man was almost blinded for a
time, and while his face was badly
blistered and burned, the accident
might have been much worse.

ON FIRE.

BLAZE LAST NIGHT ON A STREET
CAR.

Flames Came Through the Floor of
the Car and Passengers Were Slightly Excited.

Last night as street car No. 37 was
rounding the curve at Brady's cut
smoke was discovered issuing from
the rear of the car and in a very short
time a blaze was coming through the floor of the car.

Some of the ladies in the car became excited and left their seats, but
were soon convinced that there was
no danger.

The car was run to the watering
tough, where water was secured and
the fire put out. It was probably caused by a hot box.

WILLIAM GODSLEBEN

THIS MORNING.

Taken to the Home of John Mc-Henry—His Left Side is Paralyzed.

This morning William Godsleben,
an old and highly respected resident of Smith's Ferry, was stricken with apoplexy while walking along Sheridan avenue.

He was carried into Peterson's shoe store and from there was hauled in the ambulance to the home of John McHenry.

turned home after a visit at Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

CARS ARE RUN TOO FAST

Willis Wells yesterday afternoon
met with a serious accident at the corner of Fifth and Market streets
while attempting to board a Southside
street car.

The usual Sunday custom of running two cars was followed yester-
day and Willis grabbed the first car,
which takes no passengers until the
lower end of Third street is reached.
Wells clung to the handle for some distance, but was unable to get
aboard the car.

Finally he let go his hold and
soared into the air, alighting in the middle of the street on all fours. He then performed a slide that would
have excited the envy of a professional base ball player.

When he gathered himself up Wells
found that both knees were badly
skinned and he had sustained several other bruises. An examination of his clothes developed the fact that the trousers were ruined and several rents
were torn in his coat.

William Russell came near meeting
with a similar fate on the very next
car that passed, the only thing that
saved him was the fact that the car
had just started and the speed was not so great.

Complaint has been made that the
cars are run too fast through the Diamond, but the citizens feel assured
that the management of the line
would not sanction the action if they
knew it, as they have been very careful to prevent accidents taking place
on their line.

SPRING GROVE.

What the People at This Summer Resort Are Doing to Put in
the Time.

Miss Helen Andrews is suffering
with a very severe carbuncle upon her
left hand.

Dr. Earl D. Holtz and family are
now residents of the dormitory.

George Laird returned Saturday to
his home in Wheeling after spending
the summer with Mr. and Mrs. N. T.
Ashbaugh.

Some time ago the old Smith and Metsch cottages were torn down and
the debris has never been cleaned up.
Arrangements are being made for a
bon fire tomorrow night.

The Hilltops and Tombstones will
play ball tomorrow evening.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. J. E.
Brookes drove to the ground. When they were ready to start home the
horse was feeling frisky and before
Mr. Brookes could get in the buggy
it started to run. Charlie Ashbaugh stopped it before any damage resulted.

—J. C. B. Beatty left today for a
trip in the interest of the Sebring pottery of East Palestine.

TO VOTE AGAIN.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

It Will be Held One Week from Next
Wednesday Evening When Pastor
May be Selected.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church will soon be given an-
other chance to vote on a pastor.

The announcement has been made
that a congregational meeting will be
held Wednesday evening, August 29,
one week from next Wednesday evening.

A number of candidates have been
heard since Rev. Fullmer declined a
call to the church, and it is thought
a selection will be made at the meet-
ing and a call extended.

upper tile works here, was instantly
killed this afternoon by the bursting
of the press.

A piece of the machinery struck
him in the forehead, and he was
thrown 20 feet across the press.
Crawford was a married man and

CHINA WANTS CONGER APPOINTED.

Washington, Aug. 20.—China has
asked the United States to appoint
Minister Conger or some other Ameri-
can official with authority to open negotiations for the establishment of
peace, and fix definite terms of settlement of the present trouble.

A similar peace application has been

A Severe Ducking Saturday Night
to Forget It.

THE JANITOR WAS MAD

He Don't Like People to Use the Church Vestibule For a
Eating Place.

IT WILL PROBABLY STOP

For several weeks parties have been
using the alley vestibule of the First Presbyterian church on Saturday
nights as a place to eat watermelon
and cantaloupes. They always forget
to take the rinds and seeds with them
and every Sunday morning Janitor
Broone had a mess to clean up.

Last Saturday night a couple hied
themselves to the vestibule taking
with them a luscious melon Janitor
Broone spied them and went after a
bucket of water. When he returned
they had just finished getting the
seeds out of the melon and were preparing to have their feast.

The janitor softly opened the vesti-
bule door and let fly with the water.
the vestibule, while the parties left
in a hurry. After they had fully decided what had happened they called
the janitor hard names and threatened
him with arrest, but he calmly gathered up the remains of their intended
feast and carried them to the furnace.

Janitor Broone has decided that people cannot lunch in that vestibule and
intends to keep a good watch in the future.

BODY LEFT ON THE TRACK SEV-ERAL DAYS.

Street Car According to Law Must Bury Animals Killed by Their Employees.

A street car killed a dog near Laughlin's pottery several days ago,
and the remains have been lying
there ever since. Patrons of the line
have been objecting to its presence
and had notified the health authorities, who have ordered the body removed.

It is a fact that is perhaps not generally known that the same regulations apply to street car companies
in the disposition of animals killed by
them as that which governs the railroads.

The law requires that the companies
remove the animals immediately
after they are killed, and the local
health authorities have nothing whatever to do with such cases.

WEBB WASN'T OUT.

If the Decision of the Umpire Had
Been Correct the Game Today
Wouldn't Have Been Necessary.

In the last Shamrock-Eclipse game
Webb fell coming home and Godwin
picked him up and practically carried
him across the plate, but Umpire Howard called him out.

The decision was questioned at the
time and somebody asked information

from the Pittsburg Dispatch, receiv-
ing the following answer:

W. F. K., East Liverpool says: "A
is on second base, B comes to bat and
cracks out a two-base hit. A tries to
score but stumbles and falls down
with 10 feet of the home plate. C,
who is coaching at third, assists A to
the plate. The umpire calls A out for C's interference. Is the decision correct?"

According to Hank O'Day, the
league umpire who officiated at the
Pittsburg-Brooklyn game Saturday,
the umpire could not call the player
out for interference, the only thing he
could do being to put the coacher out
of the game.

Under the circumstances and allowing that Howard had no right to put Godwin out of the game his decision
was morally right.

BASSING BURNED.

Which He Had Placed in a Tub of Water for the Purpose
of Cooling.

Willim Bassing, of Fourth street,
an employe of the Thompson pottery,
was severely burned about the face
Saturday.

Bassing was repairing the wagon
which he was driving and had heated
a piece of gas pipe for the purpose
of enlarging a hole in the shaft. The
pipe became too hot and Bassing attempted to cool it by putting it in a
tub of water.

The steam made by the red hot iron
coming suddenly in contact with the
water came back through the pipe,
striking Mr. Bassing full in the face.

The man was almost blinded for a
time, and while his face was badly
blistered and burned, the accident
might have been much worse.

BLAZE LAST NIGHT ON A STREET

Flames Came Through the Floor of
the Car and Passengers Were Slightly Excited.

Last night as street car No. 37 was
rounding the curve at Brady's cut
smoke was discovered issuing from
time a blaze was coming through the
floor of the car.

Some of the ladies in the car be-
came excited and left their seats, but
were soon convinced that there was
no danger.

The car was run to the watering
trough, where water was secured and
the fire put out. It was probably
caused by a hot box.

WILLIS WELLS TOOK A HEADER

Tried to Get on a Moving Street
Car With the Usual
Result.

LANDED IN THE STREET

After Executing Some Movements
That Would Do Credit to a Professional Gymnast.

CARS ARE RUN TOO FAST

Willis Wells yesterday afternoon
met with a serious accident at the corner of Fifth and Market streets
while attempting to board a Southside
street car.

The usual Sunday custom of running two cars was followed yester-
day and Willis grabbed the first car,
which takes no passengers until the
lower end of Third street is reached.
Wells clung to the handle for some
distance, but was unable to get
aboard the car.

Finally he let go his hold and
soared into the air, alighting in the middle of the street on all fours. He
then performed a slide that would
al base ball player.

When he gathered himself up Wells
found that both knees were badly
skinned and he had sustained several
clothes developed the fact that the
trousers were ruined and several rents
were torn in his coat.

William Russell came near meeting
with a similar fate on the very next
car that passed, the only thing that
saved him was the fact that the car
had just started and the speed was
not so great.

Complaint has been made that the
cars are run too fast through the Diamond, but the citizens feel assured
that the management of the line
would not sanction the action if they
ful to prevent accidents taking place
on their line.

SPRING GROVE.

What the People at This Summer Resort Are Doing to Put in
the Time.

Miss Helen Andrews is suffering
left hand.

Dr. Earl D. Holtz and family are
now residents of the dormitory.

George Laird returned Saturday to
his home in Wheeling after spending
the summer with Mr. and Mrs. N. T.
Ashbaugh.

Some time ago the old Smith and Metsch cottages were torn down and
the debris has never been cleaned up.
Arrangements are being made for a
bon fire tomorrow night.

The Hilltops and Tombstones will
play ball tomorrow evening.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. J. E.
Brookes drove to the ground. When
they were ready to start home the
horse was feeling frisky and before
Mr. Brookes could get in the buggy
it started to run. Charlie Ashbaugh
stopped it before any damage resulted.

—J. C. B. Beatty left today for a
trip in the interest of the Sebring pottery of East Palestine.

COMRADE J. M'COY WRITES A LETTER

From the National Military Home,
Situated at Dayton,
Ohio.

VETERANS WELL CARED FOR

They Miss Only the Comforts of a Private Home, With Wife
and Children.

EAST LIVERPOOL MAY EXCURT.

"Comrade Palmer, I promised you when last in East Liverpool that I would give you a letter from this point, and I now make that promise good. You will pardon mistakes, as I make no pretensions as a newspaper correspondent.

"We have about 300 sick in the hospital at the present time. They are well cared for by Surgeon Hoffman, of Pittsburgh, and Dr. Miller, of Johnstown, Pa.

"Cleanliness is one of the essential requirements at this model veteran's home. We have a splendid laundry, under skillful management. All inmates must bathe at least once per week, and the facilities for bathing are exceptionally fine.

"We have in all 35 barracks at this point. No. 1 will accommodate 450 men. Yours truly is in No. 6, and I have 599 comrades bunking with me. Captain Harvey is in charge of No. 6 barracks. He is a Christian gentleman and a strong advocate of total abstinence.

"Bugle call strings out at 5 a. m., when we tumble out and make our beds. The bell rings for first table at 5:45. Some 3,000 or more veterans respond to this first table call. The second table call rings at 6:15 a. m.

"For breakfast we have good bread, butter, coffee, milk, sugar and possibly cold boiled ham. We are not stinted in any manner, but are given all that we can eat. For dinner we have soup, meat, bread and butter, with plenty of the best of coffee to wash the edibles down. For supper we have bread and butter, tea, cakes and cheese. On Sunday, for dinner, we have elegant mutton stew, prepared by those who know how to make palatable stews. It requires 52 sheep to supply the camp for a Sunday dinner, backed up with seven vinegar barrels of murrhys, peeled and sliced. The majority of us are good feeders and make full harvest hands at the table.

"We have a splendid fire department, manned exclusively by old veterans. We have a fine library and reading room, a club room and a billiard parlor; we also have a nice opera house, all for the benefit of the old soldier boys. All that is necessary is for a man to behave himself as a man should. If an inmate misbehaves he goes to the guard house and finally appears before the governor of the Home for trial. If found guilty, he goes on the dump, has his pass taken away and is compelled to do police duty in cleaning the streets and camp.

Your humble servants holds a red card pass, signed by the governor, said pass granting all of the Sunday privileges and permitting me to go out and in as often as I see fit, on Sunday or week day.

"We have formed a soldiers' and sailors' temperance union, 550 strong. It is a branch of the Womans' Christian Temperance union. I have the honor of being a charter member. We are pushing our organization with might and main; and, by the help of God, we will drive King Alcohol from this point just as effectually as we drove Lee and his army away from Gettysburg. We will do better work than our townsmen did at East Liverpool in your late campaign against the saloon.

"Comrade Palmer, it is a glorious sight to see more than 500 of the old boys of the sixties wearing the badge of the Womans' Christian Temperance union on the lapels of their coats. When we go down to Dayton they try to persuade us to remove the badge, but we let them know it is there to stay for the remainder of our lives.

We had a large number of excursionists here from Sandusky. We have excursions coming to this point almost every day, inspecting our lakes, parks and plants and our $10,000 green house, and the splendid painting of the battle of Gettysburg.

"We have the very best of treatment, good quarters and good food, with all the enjoyments we could ask for. The only thing lacking is the idea of your own private hearthstone, your own vine and fig tree, with loving wife and dutiful and loving children by your side.

"By the way, Comrade Palmer, use the influence of the News Review in having an excursion from East Liverpool to this point. It is only seven hours' run from East Liverpool to Dayton. We would give the Liverpoolites a warm reception and I believe that every excursionist would be delighted with our splendid Home and surroundings. We have a fine hotel on the grounds and can furnish the best of fare at most reasonable prices. Stir the matter up, and don't fail to come yourself.

"All the East Liverpool comrades at this point are well and send kindest regards to Comrade Palmer and all of the friends who have any interest in their welfare.

"Respectfully,
"JOSEPH M'COY,
"Barracks No. 6, National Military Home, Ohio."

TAKE IN THE FAIR.

and Grow Fat and Hearty.

Are you going to the fair? What fair? Why, the Hookstown fair, of course. Everybody goes that can possibly secure a conveyance, and when they can't secure a conveyance, they take their foot in their hand and get there anyhow. The grounds have been much improved lately; the race track has been put in good shape; fast speeders will be on hand and there will be fun galore. You cannot afford to miss this fair, occurring Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 21, 22 and 23.

TEN DOLLARS.

This Contribution Will Support Two Families for the Period of 60 Days.

A resident of East Liverpool, representing his family, gave into the hands of the News Review, on Saturday last, the sum of $10 for the India famine fund. An order had been sent forward in the forenoon, but this $10 gift was sent speeding after it on Saturday evening, as the delay of a few hours might mean the unnecessary sacrifice of human lives.

Readers of the News Review, study this $10 gift for a moment; consider what it will do in India. It will feed two families of four persons each for the period of two months and bid the gaunt wolf of starvation defiance. Eight human beings saved and made comparatively happy. A glorious record to face the generous donors in the day of final accounting. Speaking with reverence, we dare here assert that our God is a good and generous paymaster. He returns both principal and interest. Test the matter. Give in the right spirit. Don't have any pull-back strings on your gift. Give because you are glad to give. Give because it warms your heart to do so. Give for the reason that you have awakened to the full realization of the truth of the saying that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Give at once. Give while the need is great. Save human lives—lives of men, women and children. Give cheerfully. Why? Because the "Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

Ohio is responding to the call of sweet charity in a way and a manner which cover a multitude of sins, and God knows that we have sore need of a such a covering. East Liverpool has given right nobly; but she is able to give much more. Cut off your saloon bills, men of East Liverpool. We have many noble fellows who are slowly but surely becoming victims of the rum demon, as he lurks in the bottom of the whisky, wine, brandy, gin and beer glass. Think of it, ye good-hearted toiler; the price of a glass of beer will feed two starving people in India for a day, while a glass of whisky, or two glasses of beer will cost you the same sum as would keep four people for a day. The liquor will bring with it a curse to yourself and to your family; the giving to the starving ones will bring you a blessing. Test the matter. Drop the saloon and aid your brother.

God bless the givers of the $10 above mentioned.

CHURCH SERVICE.

Rev. Ball Occupied the Pulpit of the
First Presbyterian Church Morning and Evening.

There was a nice audience present at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. Ball, of Utica, N. Y., occupied the pulpit. The writer had the pleasure of listening to the morning sermon; subject 137th Psalm and 4th verse: "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?" The reverend gentleman's exposition of the subject was a very pleasing one. He asserted that we cannot sing the Lord's song correctly and with outreaching power and efficacy until we first have the music in our own hearts and lives, the experimental knowledge of the love of God within us; the knowledge of which passeth all understanding.

The speaker preaches the plain gospel of the love of God for fallen humanity; his justice, tempered with boundless mercy, through the sacrifice made on calvary by the Savior of mankind. It was a sermon well worth listening to; a sermon calculated to do a sinner immeasurable good, if said sinner would but open his heart and let the spirit of truth come in. Rev. Ball made many friends in the congregation by his pleasant, unassuming manner.

Colonel Rhodes arrived at the Astor on the colonel, though that could not be said of him last week in Philadelphia. Flies and heat! No wonder he was glad to get to New York.

CHURCH SERVICE.

Rev. Ball Occupied the Pulpit of the
First Presbyterian Church Morn-
ing and Evening.

There was a nice audience present at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. Ball, of Utica, N. Y., occupied the pulpit. The writer had the pleasure of listening to the morning sermon; subject 137th Psalm and 4th verse: "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?" The reverend gentleman's exposition of the subject was a very pleasing one. He asserted that we cannot sing the Lord's song correctly and with outreaching power and efficacy until we first have the music in our own hearts and lives, the experimental knowledge of the love of God within us; the knowledge of which passeth all understanding.

The speaker preaches the plain gospel of the love of God for fallen humanity; his justice, tempered with boundless mercy, through the sacrifice made on calvary by the Savior of mankind. It was a sermon well worth listening to; a sermon calculated to do a sinner immeasurable good, if said sinner would but open his heart and let the spirit of truth come in. Rev. Ball made many friends in the congregation by his pleasant, unassuming manner.

COMRADE J. M'COY WRITES A LETTER

From the National Military Home,
Situated at Dayton,
Ohio.

VETERANS WELL CARED FOR

Private Home, With Wife
and Children.

EAST LIVERPOOL MAY EXCURT.

"Comrade Palmer, I promised you when last in East Liverpool that I would give you a letter from this point, and I now make that promise good. You will pardon mistakes, as I make no pretensions as a newspaper correspondent.

"We have about 300 sick in the hospital at the present time. They are well cared for by Surgeon Hoffman, of Pittsburg, and Dr. Miller, of Johnstown, Pa.

"Cleanliness is one of the essential requirements at this model veteran's home. We have a splendid laundry, under skillful management. All inmates must bathe at least once per week, and the facilities for bathing are exceptionally fine.

"We have in all 35 barracks at this point. No. 1 will accommodate 450 men. Yours truly is in No. 6, and I have 599 comrades bunking with me. Captain Harvey is in charge of No. 6 barracks. He is a Christian gentleman and a strong advocate of total abstinence.

"Bugle call strings out at 5 a. m., when we tumble out and make our beds. The bell rings for first table at 5:45. Some 3,000 or more veterans respond to this first table call. The second table call rings at 6:15 a. m.

"For breakfast we have good bread, butter, coffee, milk, sugar and possibly cold boiled ham. We are not stinted in any manner, but are given all that we can eat. For dinner we have soup, meat, bread and butter, with plenty of the best of coffee to wash the edibles down. For supper we have bread and butter, tea, cakes and cheese. On Sunday, for dinner, we have elegant mutton stew, prepared by those who know how to make palatable stews. It requires 52 sheep to supply the camp for a Sunday dinner, backed up with seven vinegar barrels of murrhys, peeled and sliced. The majority of us are good feeders and make full harvest hands at the table.

"We have a splendid fire department, manned exclusively by old veterans. We have a fine library and reading room, a club room and a billiard parlor; we also have a nice opera house, all for the benefit of the old soldier boys. All that is necessary is for a man to behave himself as a man should. If an inmate misbehaves he goes to the guard house and finally appears before the governor of the Home for trial. If found guilty, he goes on the dump, has his pass taken away and is compelled to do police duty in cleaning the streets and camp.

Your humble servants holds a red card pass, signed by the governor, said pass granting all of the Sunday privileges and permitting me to go out and in as often as I see fit, on Sunday or week day.

"We have formed a soldiers' and sailors' temperance union, 550 strong. It is a branch of the Womans' Christian Temperance union. I have the honor of being a charter member. We are pushing our organization with might and main; and, by the help of God, we will drive King Alcohol from this point just as effectually as we drove Lee and his army away from Gettysburg. We will do better work than our townsmen did at East Liverpool in your late campaign against the saloon.

"Comrade Palmer, it is a glorious sight to see more than 500 of the old boys of the sixties wearing the badge of the Womans' Christian Temperance union on the lapels of their coats. When we go down to Dayton they try to persuade us to remove the badge, but we let them know it is there to stay for the remainder of our lives.

We had a large number of excursionists here from Sandusky. We have excursions coming to this point almost every day, inspecting our lakes, parks and plants and our $10,000 green house, and the splendid painting of the battle of Gettysburg.

"We have the very best of treatment, good quarters and good food, with all the enjoyments we could ask for. The only thing lacking is the idea of your own private hearthstone, your own vine and fig tree, with loving wife and dutiful and loving children by your side.

"By the way, Comrade Palmer, use the influence of the News Review in having an excursion from East Liverpool to this point. It is only seven hours' run from East Liverpool to Dayton. We would give the Liverpoolites a warm reception and I believe that every excursionist would be delighted with our splendid Home and surroundings. We have a fine hotel on the grounds and can furnish the best of fare at most reasonable prices. Stir the matter up, and don't fail to come yourself.

"All the East Liverpool comrades at this point are well and send kindest regards to Comrade Palmer and all of the friends who have any interest in their welfare.

"Respectfully,
"JOSEPH M'COY,
"Barracks No. 6, National Military Home, Ohio."

TAKE IN THE FAIR.

You Will Have Oceans of Fun, Laugh
Hearty.

Are you going to the fair? What fair? Why, the Hookstown fair, of course. Everybody goes that can possibly secure a conveyance, and when they can't secure a conveyance, they take their foot in their hand and get there anyhow. The grounds have been much improved lately; the race track has been put in good shape; fast speeders will be on hand and there will be fun galore. You cannot afford to miss this fair, occurring Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 21, 22 and 23.

TEN DOLLARS.

This Contribution Will Support Two
60 Days.

A resident of East Liverpool, representing his family, gave into the hands of the News Review, on Saturday last, the sum of $10 for the India famine fund. An order had been sent forward in the forenoon, but this $10 gift was sent speeding after it on Saturday evening, as the delay of a few hours might mean the unnecessary sacrifice of human lives.

Readers of the News Review, study this $10 gift for a moment; consider what it will do in India. It will feed two families of four persons each for the period of two months and bid the gaunt wolf of starvation defiance. Eight human beings saved and made comparatively happy. A glorious record to face the generous donors in the day of final accounting. Speaking with reverence, we dare here assert that our God is a good and generous paymaster. He returns both principal and interest. Test the matter. Give in the right spirit. Don't have any pull-back strings on your gift. Give because you are glad to give. Give because it warms your heart to do so. Give for the reason that you have awakened to the full realization of the truth of the saying that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Give at once. Give while the need is great. Save human lives—lives of men, women and children. Give cheerfully. Why? Because the "Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

Ohio is responding to the call of sweet charity in a way and a manner which cover a multitude of sins, and God knows that we have sore need of a such a covering. East Liverpool has given right nobly; but she is able to give much more. Cut off your saloon bills, men of East Liverpool. We have many noble fellows who are slowly but surely becoming victims of the rum demon, as he lurks in the bottom of the whisky, wine, brandy, gin and beer glass. Think of it, ye good-hearted toiler; the price of a glass of beer will feed two starving people in India for a day, while a glass of whisky, or two glasses of beer will cost you the same sum as would keep four people for a day. The liquor will bring with it a curse to yourself and to your family; the giving to the starving ones will bring you a blessing. Test the matter. Drop the saloon and aid your brother.

God bless the givers of the $10 above mentioned.

STILL THINK NEW SCALE IS DOOMED

Trenton Jiggermen Have Started
an Opposition to the N. B.
of O. P.

CHARTER TAKES IN ALL HANDS

It Is Stated That at Least 150 Kiln-
men Have Quit Paying Dues
to Brotherhood.

A TRENTON VIEW OF IT

The Trenton True American still
thinks the uniform scale will never
be enforced in that city and in the
issue of Saturday says:

It was stated by several kilnmen
last evening that about 150 work-
men in that branch of the pottery
trade have refused to pay any more
dues in the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, owing to dissatisfaction with
the new scale.

It has been the custom for some time among the Brotherhood to contribute 1 per cent of their weekly
earnings toward establishing a sinking fund.

Since the agitation of the new scale
question this weekly assessment, it is
said, has fallen off considerably, until
now it is collected in only two potter-
ies in this city—the Mercer and Cook's.

It is believed by many that the kiln-
men who are dissatisfied with the
scale will leave the Brotherhood and
set up an independent organization of
their own.

Another 30 applications for admission were presented before the jig-
germen's meeting last night, and they
will be admitted at the next meeting.

The jiggermen decided to throw
open their charter to the other
branches of the trade last night, as
they had been asked by a number of
the kilnmen whether or not they would be allowed to become members.

The new scale received a great
amount of discussion, and the jiggermen are as determined as ever not
to accept it.

Judging from the dissatisfaction
that reigns in the ranks of the Brotherhood the new scale is not likely to
be enforced in the potteries in this
city.

One prominent member of the kiln-
men's union said last night that it is
the belief of nearly all the kilnmen
that President Hughes went back
home because he was thoroughly disgusted with the way the potters in
this city took hold of the new scale.

It is known that the wages of the
potters in the west have been greatly
increased by the new scale, but the
potters in the east attribute it to their superior facilities.

MILLER IS MAD.

Says Sebring People Should Look
After Their Cases in Better Shape.

On Saturday Constable Miller arrested William Green on a warrant
sent here from Sebring. Green was charged with jumping a board bill,
and when arraigned gave security for
his appearance today.

Miller attempted to communicate
with Mayor Albright, of Sebring, but
was unsuccessful; the mayor was
at Hollow Rock.

The constable has now decided to allow the prisoner to go unless he receives some word from the authorities at Sebring.

Miller asserts that the people there
are directly interested and should

look after their affairs better, so he
will let the matter drop where it is.

CALCUTTA ROAD PEOPLE IN Mc-
CARRON'S COURT.

After the Trouble Had Been Settled
Wedgewood Arrived on the Scene
And Talked Loud.

Business was slow in the court of Justice McCarron on Saturday night,
and at 9 o'clock in the evening he was about to close up for the week when
Mrs. Elizabeth Wedgewood appeared
at the office and swore out a warrant
against Joseph and Grace Hecka-
thorne, charging them with assault
and battery.

The parties were arraigned and Mr.
Heckathorne, after some deliberation,
decided to plead guilty. He was fined
$1 and costs, which he paid.

The families are neighbors and reside on the Calcutta road. They don't get on well, and on Saturday evening
had some words, which resulted in a

Heckathorne asserts that he merely pushed the Wedgewood woman away
when she attempted to hit his wife,
but in order to avoid trouble concluded
to plead guilty.

Mrs. Heckathorne plead not guilty
and the case will be heard on Wednesday at 7 p. m.

Mr. Wedgewood came to the office
after the matter had been disposed
of and demanded to know who assaulted his wife. He was very angry
and talked in a loud voice. The squire
soon settled him, however, by having
him taken from the office, telling the
man he would be locked up if he persisted in annoying the court.

Convicted Man So Character-
izes His Trial.

ALLEGES IT A POLITICAL SCHEME.

Declares It Will Hurt the Opponent
Party—The Prisoner Unanimously Condemned by the Jury to Life Imprisonment—He Was Terribly Shocked.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20. — Caleb
Powers issued a statement as follows:

I am asked my opinion concerning
my trial and the verdict of the jury.
Could I have but one opinion? Can
any fair-minded man or woman of this state have but one? That one of the greatest judicial farces known to
history has been enacted here in my trial, under the forms of law. No well-informed man can doubt. Innocence
is no shield with $100,000 and the methods of Campbellism against you.
The rectitude of one's past life counts
for naught. They say Taylor is guilty
because he was at his office, and that I am guilty because I was away from mine. This has been a political trial
throughout for political purposes, and
no greater mistake has been made by
the Democratic party, since they robbed us of the offices to which we were fairly elected by the people. There are good men and noble women in the Democratic party, and many of them.
They are not all bad, far from it. A great many of them do not endorse
the theft of the state offices. A great many more will not endorse this mock-
ery of a trial, this prostitution of the courts of justice for certain ends. From
the beginning of the campaign until
now I have stood with what little of merit I have had for the rights and liberties of the people. That is my crime. That is the only offense I have committed. That is the only thing proven against me. I swore to that myself
in my testimony. I have never had
and I now have no apology to make for
being true to the trust imposed upon
me by the majority of the voters of this state. History will draw its dark
lines around those who have outraged
and disgraced the judiciary and blackened the history of the state. I am very respectfully, Caleb Powers.

The case of Henry Youtsey will be called today, but as the defendant has
not fully recovered it was not certain
last night whether the case will go to trial. As much, if not more difficulty
was expected in securing a jury than
in the Powers case, as nearly everybody
in the county became disqualified by
hearing evidence in the Powers trial.
It is probable that Judge Cantrill will summon a venire from the adjoining counties.

Georgetown, Aug. 20.—"We, the jury,
find the defendant guilty, and fix his
punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for the rest of his natural
life."

This was the wording of the verdict
rendered in the case of ex-Secretary
of State Caleb Powers, charged with being accessory before the fact to the murder of William Goebel. The jury
retired at 1:32 p. m. and returned its verdict at 2:25, having been out only 53 minutes.

Powers, always pale, grew ghastly
white as the verdict was read and his
face betokened great mental anguish.
Then, somewhat regaining his compos-
ure, he turned to the Misses Danger-
field, who had been in conversation
with him, and said:

"I was not expecting that. The verdict is unjust."

Powers remained in the courtroom
for some time after the verdict was
rendered in conference with his attorneys, who will at once move for a
new trial, and, failing that, will take
an appeal.

POPE IN EXCELLENT HEALTH AND SPIRITS

He Introduced Archbishop Ireland, Who
Talked on Matters in America.
At the Vatican.

Rome, Aug. 20.—Sunday being the feast of St. Joachim, the pope's patron
saint, there was a large gathering at
the vatican of cardinals, bishops and
presidents of societies. The pope,
who was in excellent health and spirits, spoke at some length regarding
matters of Catholic interest, and then,
with a complimentary introduction, invited Archbishop Ireland to address
the assembly on matters in America
and the relations of the outer world
to the holy see.

Mgr. Ireland, who was frequently
applauded during a speech of 20 minutes, spoke glowingly of the fidelity
of American Catholics to the Roman church and the holy see. He described liberty under the American flag and
set forth the necessity of the pope, as
the head of christendom, being free
and independent to any one civil power
"so as to be in fact as well as of right
the sovereign teacher and ruler of all nations and peoples without special dependency on any special nation or people."

The address gave visible satisfaction.
Mgr. Ireland had a final audience
with the pope on Friday.

quarantine by a large delegation of
clergymen and friends.

Archbishop Corrigan's health has
been greatly benefited by the trip
abroad and he said that his four months' tour on the other side of the Atlantic was a four months' round of pleasant visits. While in Rome he had six interviews with Pope Leo XIII, two of which were personal
ones.

A Letter From Chappelle Received in Washington.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Archbishop
Chappelle, the apostolic delegate to the Philippines, has written to one of the
pastors here that his investigation of
church affairs there is about ended,
and he expects to make his personal
report to the pope early in November.

For some time past there have been rumors that Dr. Chappelle is strongly
in favor of the friars, but nothing definite on the subject will be known
until he acquaints Pope Leo with the result of his observations. Dr. Chap-
pelle will not return to his see before
next spring, as he intends to spend the winter in France.

Off His Mind.

"Have you forgotten that X that you
borrowed of me some time ago?"

"Oh, no; I still have it in my mind."

"Well, don't you think this would be a good time to relieve your mind of it?"

Trenton Jiggermen Have Started an Opposition to the N. B. of O. P.

CHARTER TAKES IN ALL HANDS

It Is Stated That at Least 150 Kilnmen Have Quit Paying Dues to Brotherhood.

A TRENTON VIEW OF IT

The Trenton True American still thinks the uniform scale will never be enforced in that city and in the issue of Saturday says:

It was stated by several kilnmen last evening that about 150 workmen in that branch of the pottery trade have refused to pay any more dues in the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, owing to dissatisfaction with the new scale.

It has been the custom for some time among the Brotherhood to contribute 1 per cent of their weekly earnings toward establishing a sinking fund.

Since the agitation of the new scale question this weekly assessment, it is said, has fallen off considerably, until now it is collected in only two potteries in this city—the Mercer and Cook's.

It is believed by many that the kilnmen who are dissatisfied with the scale will leave the Brotherhood and set up an independent organization of their own.

Another 30 applications for admission were presented before the jiggermen's meeting last night, and they will be admitted at the next meeting.

The jiggermen decided to throw open their charter to the other branches of the trade last night, as they had been asked by a number of the kilnmen whether or not they would be allowed to become members.

The new scale received a great amount of discussion, and the jiggermen are as determined as ever not to accept it.

Judging from the dissatisfaction that reigns in the ranks of the Brotherhood the new scale is not likely to be enforced in the potteries in this city.

One prominent member of the kilnmen's union said last night that it is the belief of nearly all the kilnmen that President Hughes went back home because he was thoroughly disgusted with the way the potters in this city took hold of the new scale.

It is known that the wages of the potters in the west have been greatly increased by the new scale, but the potters in the east attribute it to their superior facilities.

MILLER IS MAD.

Says Sebring People Should Look After Their Cases in Better Shape.

On Saturday Constable Miller arrested William Green on a warrant sent here from Sebring. Green was charged with jumping a board bill, and when arraigned gave security for his appearance today.

Miller attempted to communicate with Mayor Albright, of Sebring, but was unsuccessful; the mayor was at Hollow Rock.

The constable has now decided to allow the prisoner to go unless he receives some word from the authorities at Sebring.

Miller asserts that the people there are directly interested and should look after their affairs better, so he will let the matter drop where it is.

A FAMILY SCRAP.

CALCUTTA ROAD PEOPLE IN McCARRON'S COURT.

After the Trouble Had Been Settled Wedgewood Arrived on the Scene And Talked Loud.

Business was slow in the court of Justice McCarron on Saturday night, and at 9 o'clock in the evening he was about to close up for the week when Mrs. Elizabeth Wedgewood appeared at the office and swore out a warrant against Joseph and Grace Heckathorne, charging them with assault and battery.

The parties were arraigned and Mr. Heckathorne, after some deliberation, decided to plead guilty. He was fined $1 and costs, which he paid.

The families are neighbors and reside on the Calcutta road. They don't get on well, and on Saturday evening had some words, which resulted in a small-sized row.

Heckathorne asserts that he merely pushed the Wedgewood woman away when she attempted to hit his wife, but in order to avoid trouble concluded to plead guilty.

Mrs. Heckathorne plead not guilty and the case will be heard on Wednesday at 7 p. m.

Mr. Wedgewood came to the office after the matter had been disposed of and demanded to know who assaulted his wife. He was very angry and talked in a loud voice. The squire soon settled him, however, by having him taken from the office, telling the man he would be locked up if he persisted in annoying the court.

Convicted Man So Characterizes His Trial.

ALLEGES IT A POLITICAL SCHEME.

Declares It Will Hurt the Opponent Party—The Prisoner Unanimously Condemned by the Jury to Life Imprisonment—He Was Terribly Shocked.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20. — Caleb Powers issued a statement as follows:

I am asked my opinion concerning my trial and the verdict of the jury. Could I have but one opinion? Can any fair-minded man or woman of this state have but one? That one of the greatest judicial farces known to history has been enacted here in my trial, under the forms of law, so well-informed man can doubt. Innocence is no shield with $100,000 and the methods of Campbellism against you. The rectitude of one's past life counts for naught. They say Taylor is guilty because he was at his office, and that I am guilty because I was away from mine. This has been a political trial throughout for political purposes, and no greater mistake has been made by the Democratic party, since they robbed us of the offices to which we were fairly elected by the people. There are good men and noble women in the Democratic party, and many of them. They are not all bad, far from it. A great many of them do not endorse the theft of the state offices. A great many more will not endorse this mockery of a trial, this prostitution of the courts of justice for certain ends. From the beginning of the campaign until now I have stood with what little of merit I have had for the rights and liberties of the people. That is my crime. That is the only offense I have committed. That is the only thing proven against me. I swore to that myself in my testimony. I have never had and I now have no apology to make for being true to the trust imposed upon me by the majority of the voters of this state. History will draw its dark lines around those who have outraged and disgraced the judiciary and blackened the history of the state. I am very respectfully, Caleb Powers.

The case of Henry Youtsey will be called today, but as the defendant has not fully recovered it was not certain last night whether the case will go to trial. As much, if not more difficulty was expected in securing a jury than in the Powers case, as nearly everybody in the county became disqualified by hearing evidence in the Powers trial. It is probable that Judge Cantrill will summon a venire from the adjoining counties.

Georgetown, Aug. 20. — "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty, and fix his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for the rest of his natural life."

This was the wording of the verdict rendered in the case of ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with being accessory before the fact to the murder of William Goebel. The jury retired at 1:32 p. m. and returned its verdict at 2:25, having been out only 53 minutes.

Powers, always pale, grew ghastly white as the verdict was read and his face betokened great mental anguish. Then, somewhat regaining his composure, he turned to the Misses Dangerfield, who had been in conversation with him, and said:

"I was not expecting that. The verdict is unjust."

Powers remained in the courtroom for some time after the verdict was rendered in conference with his attorneys, who will at once move for a new trial, and, failing that, will take an appeal.

POPE IN EXCELLENT HEALTH AND SPIRITS

He Introduced Archbishop Ireland, Who Talked on Matters in America. At the Vatican.

Rome, Aug. 20.—Sunday being the feast of St. Joachim, the pope's patron saint, there was a large gathering at the Vatican of cardinals, bishops and presidents of societies. The pope, who was in excellent health and spirits, spoke at some length regarding matters of Catholic interest, and then, with a complimentary introduction, invited Archbishop Ireland to address the assembly on matters in America and the relations of the outer world to the holy see.

Mgr. Ireland, who was frequently applauded during a speech of 20 minutes, spoke glowingly of the fidelity of American Catholics to the Roman church and the holy see. He described liberty under the American flag and set forth the necessity of the pope, as the head of Christendom, being free and independent to any one civil power "so as to be in fact as well as of right the sovereign teacher and ruler of all nations and peoples without special dependency on any special nation or people."

The address gave visible satisfaction. Mgr. Ireland had a final audience with the pope on Friday.

THE OPEN DOOR.

The reverend gentleman occupying the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church of East Liverpool yesterday, thanked God for the open door in China, and prayed that it might continue open to the advanced civilization of the world. He fervently thanked God for the relief of Conger and the legations there surrounded by a savage foe. The reverend gentleman's talk has the right ring.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE.

We mean you. A personal application. You. When you wink at the evils arising from the accursed saloon in East Liverpool, asserting that it is none of your business, you are guilty of that which you know to be false; and you know, if you know anything, that you will be compelled to answer for your guilt in the great day of final judgment. If you support an evil, directly or indirectly, you become part and parcel of that evil. Clear your skirts.

WAR VERSUS PEACE.

Billie Jennings Bryan and his peace howlers have had their innings. They ran well for a time and seemed on the crest of the wave which rises to success. But the undertow of right and justice and patriotism has caught the public pulse—the hearts of the masses—and from this time forth Billy Jennings Bryan and his croakers will be submerged and finally drowned. Peace is a grandly glorious feature, and much to be desired; but when had at the expense of right and justice and honor and patriotism, it becomes an undesirable feature. Conger would have very much liked to have had peace exist at Peking, China; but the Boxers forced war upon the legations, and the latter entered upon the spirit and letter of war in a manner which surprised their bloodthirsty and savage assailants. The United States forces at Manila desired peace with the Filipinos; but the latter subjected Uncle Sam's boys to any and every class of insult, until the dusky fellows reached the conclusion that they had cowards to deal with and assaulted our boys, with orders from Aguinaldo to exterminate the Americans; and then the latter, as gallant boys as ever faced a foe, showed the metal of which they are composed, and hunted traitor Aguinaldo and his followers to their dens. Billie Jennings Bryan has demonstrated the fact that he is not possessed of courage or sand, as shown by his conduct when he resigned the commission which he had accepted. And now he and his followers are giving aid and comfort to the most treacherous foe that ever faced United States troops, rejoicing over the killing of our soldier boys by the Filipinos, and branding our troops as murderers when they hunt the red Indians from their lairs. The custody of the Philippines on the part of the United States is the natural outcome and sequence of the Spanish-American war, and if the insurgents keep up their hostile attitude against our forces, we will compel honorable peace, even if we find it necessary to let loose the dogs of war to accomplish our desire.

CROPS ARE GOOD.

Hancock County Farmers Say the Potato Crop This Year Will be Good.

Reports from the country districts of West Virginia are to the effect that the crop of potatoes this year gives promise of being better than for the past eight years.

Unless something unusual happens corn will be more plentiful and of a better quality than has been known in five or six years.

Other agricultural products are doing well this year, and if present indications can be taken for anything crops in every particular will be better and more plentiful than for many years.

TICKET OF UNION REFORM PARTY

Annual Convention Was Held Saturday at Lisbon and Candidates Nominated

FOR THE COUNTY OFFICES

The Convention Was Very Poorly Attended but Went on Just the Same.

DID NOT ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

Lisbon, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—The annual convention of the Union Reform party was held in the common pleas court room Saturday.

A very small representation of the party was present and nothing was done except nominating the following ticket:

For commissioner—Thomas R. Wilson, Negley.
For infirmary director—H. J. Lewis, Wellsville.
For coroner—Charles Allcom, East Fairfield.

The candidate for prosecuting attorney was not chosen in the convention, and the county committee has been authorized to make the selection.

Will Drill More Wells.

A Wellsville paper says: "The Schmidt-Hill company of East Liverpool, which has a good gas well at Kountz's crossing, is preparing to drill another well on Judge Smith's farm on Rough's Run. The casing is being taken out of the gas well and gas pipe is being put in.

"The company expects to develop two or three good gas wells in this neighborhood before fall."

Appealed a Case.

Lisbon, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—H. C. Jones, as guardian of Barton Sinclair, has appealed a case to court from Salem in which Metta S. Vorton recently recovered judgment against him for $221.

The amount is due on a promissory note given in Salem five years ago.

A Queer Case.

ROY KNOB WAS HIT BY A TRAIN

A Prominent Young Man of East Palestine Lost His Life Saturday Night

WENT HOME WITH A GIRL

And While Returning to the City Was Hit by a Fast Train.

WELL KNOWN IN THIS CITY

Roy Knob, son of William Knob, of East Palestine, was instantly killed in that city Saturday night.

Knob was about 18 years of age and was well known in this city, especially in the East End.

Saturday night he went home with a young lady named Johnson, who lives about three-quarters of a mile from East Palestine. He left her and was seen passing through Lowtown, a small village west of East Palestine, about 10:30 o'clock. This was the last time he was seen alive.

About 5:30 Sunday morning William Johnson, who is gate keeper at the works, and father of the girl Knob took home, was going to his work when he came across the body. He notified the ticket agent and the body was picked up and taken to the undertaker's on a hand car, where it was identified as that of Knob.

Coroner Straughn was notified and

arrived in East Palestine before noon, and after investigating the case rendered a verdict of accidental death.

The theory is that Knob was walking along the track and heard a freight coming and stepped across to the other track when No. 5, a fast through train, hit him.

His body was very badly mangled, his under jaw being broken in two places, his shoulder blades torn loose, his right hand and left leg being broken.

The funeral will take place this evening and the remains will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow morning for interment.

FIGHTING AT PEKING.

Tartar City Held Out Against Out Against Allies.

EMPRESS SAID TO BE THERE.

A Chinese Official, as to Whose Name the Dispatches Differ, Said to Have Detained Her—Minister Received Information That She Had Fled.

London, Aug. 20. — Rear Admiral Bruce cables the admiralty from Che Foo, August 19, a dispatch containing the following:

"Am informed on the authority of the Japanese that street fighting still continues in Peking, part of which is on fire.

"Yang Sa prevented the empress from leaving, and a last stand is now being made in the inner city, which is surrounded by the allies and being bombarded."

Rome, Aug. 20.—A dispatch from Taku, via Che Foo, Aug. 18, said:

"Fighting continues in the streets of Peking, and the allies have bombarded the point that is still resisting. Prince Yung prevented the departure of the empress dowager."

Washington, Aug. 20.—The navy department received the following cablegram:

"Taku, Aug. 18.—Telegraph line to Peking interrupted. Information Japanese sources empress dowager detained by Prince Yungedo inner city, which is being bombarded by allies. Chaffee reports entered legation grounds evening 14th. Eight wounded during day's fight. Otherwise all well. "Remey."

The war department received the following dispatch:

"Che Foo, Aug. 19, Peking, Aug. 15.—We entered legation grounds at 5 o'clock last night with Fourteenth and light battery. Eight wounded during day's fighting. Otherwise all well. "Chaffee."

War department officials thought the date, Peking, Aug. 15, was an error in transmission. They believed it should be August 16, as all previous reports indicated that Peking was captured on the 15th inst.

The startling feature of the dispatch is that fighting within the city of Peking was continuing, according to the advice of Admiral Remey. The inner, or, as is popularly known, the Forbidden City, evidently had not been taken. It is surrounded by a massive wall of solid masonry, more than 20 feet high. Prior to the receipt of the dispatch it was accepted generally as a fact that the dowager empress, in company with the emperor and a large suite, had left Peking. Nothing is said in Admiral Remey's advice as to the whereabouts of the emperor. Some doubt of the accuracy of the information received by Admiral Remey was expressed, particularly as the Chinese minister, Mr. Wu, was very positive that the emperor, empress dowager and the entire Chinese court left Peking before the arrival at the gates of the allies.

Minister Wu said that he had official advice to the effect that the emperor and empress dowager had gone from Peking to the province of Shen Si, a considerable distance west of the capital city. He had not been advised to what city they had gone. The minister believed they were entirely out of danger. The statement that the dowager empress was detained by Prince Yungedo therefore gave him little concern, although he expressed some interest in it. He said there was no Chinese Prince Yungedo. It is not a Chinese name. It might be, the minister thought, a Japanese name, but, personally, he knew of no such person.

At the Japanese legation it was said that Yungedo was not a Chinese name. No Japanese official of that name was known to the legation attaches. Their solution of the question raised by the dispatch was that the name should be Yung Lu. He was the commander in chief of the imperial Chinese troops, and was said to have strong anti-foreign inclinations and sympathies. No conjecture was offered as to the reason for the detention of the dowager empress by him. Among Washington officials it was regarded as hardly likely that the empress dowager was being detained by any Chinese official. If she be in Peking at this time she is there probably of her own accord. The assertion of Minister Wu, based upon official advice from his government, however, is most positive that she is not in the city of Peking.

The Japanese minister, Mr. Takahira, received the following advice from the Japanese foreign office at Tokio:

"The Japanese consul at Che Foo wired under date August 17 to the following effect:

"The foreign forces attacked on the eastern side of Peking on Wednesday morning. The enemy obstinately resisted. In the evening the Japanese blew up the Chiao Yang gate and the Tung Chih gate of the Tartar city and succeeded in entering. In the meantime other foreign forces entered the Chinese city by the Tung Pien gate. Detachments were sent immediately to the legations and opened communications. The ministers and staffs were found safe. The Japanese loss was over 100, including three officers, namely, Captain Michiye and Lieutenant Watanabe wounded, while Lieutenant Yazaki was killed. The Chinese loss computed at about 400."

CHINA MUST SETTLE WITH 11 NATIONS.

China Will Have to Indemnify Them For Losses During the Boxer Disturbances.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Now that the primary object for which the allied armies marched upon Peking, viz., the rescue of the besieged legation, has been accomplished, the drift of discussion in official and diplomatic circles reverts to the next step to be taken. Necessarily many of the predictions as to what this will be are purely conjectural, as it is realized that complete and definite information regarding the condition of affairs in Peking must be awaited before any positive action can be taken by the governments whose interests have suffered as a result of the Chinese troubles.

"We are on the threshold of an entirely new condition of affairs; a new aspect confronts us," said a well-posted official of this government. "The efforts of the several governments during the past few weeks have been devoted to the rescue of the legation at Peking. Now that that has been accomplished, the course of the governments whose interests have been affected is for the present one largely of conjecture."

The presumption here is that the next move will be an agreement for an armistice. This may be undertaken by the commanders of the Chinese army and those of the allies on the spot where the fighting, according to the latest reports from Peking, appears to be still in progress. This accomplished, the question of the withdrawal of the foreign armies, the payment of indemnities, and many other problems may be left to commissions duly appointed to adjudicate them. Li Hung Chang has already been appointed a plenipotentiary by his government to negotiate terms of peace, and in this capacity he made an ineffectual attempt to stop the progress of the allies in their march on Peking. Whether Earl Li will be continued in that capacity by the imperial government is not known here, but such seems altogether probable, as with his well-known ability and his acquaintance with the world he would be able to possibly make better terms than any other Chinaman.

There are 11 nations, pointed out the same official, which have suffered as a result of the Chinese disturbances. All will expect a settlement of damages which have resulted from the Boxer outbreaks, the murder of missionaries, and the destruction of legation property. Spain is one of these, and, although she has not participated in the relief expedition, she has suffered alike with the others, and will expect to be indemnified for her losses. It can be stated authoritatively that up to this time there have been no exchanges between the United States and the other powers regarding the steps to be taken in the future to bring China to terms for the losses that have been incurred. The sole interest of the United States up to this time has been the rescue of legation property, which is now an accomplished fact. Informal discussion has taken place between the president and his cabinet as to what this government will do to secure reparation for losses, but the conclusions reached are purely tentative and in no sense definite.

THREE MISSIONARIES MURDERED.

All Those Stationed at Pao Ting Fu Victims of the Boxers.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Presbyterian board of foreign missions in this city received the following cablegram: Che Foo — Definite news via Tien Tsin, missionaries Pao-Ting Fu all killed. W. O. Elterich.

Mr. Elterich is the Presbyterian board's member at Che Foo. It was thought that the Presbyterian missionaries at Pao Ting Fu number three, and that altogether there were ten foreign missionaries at that place.

INHUMBERT'S MEMORY

Impressive Services Held in Washington.

COUNTERPART OF THE CATAFALQUE

Celebrated Mass—Priests Later Sprinkled Casket With Holy Water—Praying for Repose of Dead King's Soul—President McKinley Attended Services.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Amid scenes of impressive solemnity and in the presence of the president of the United States, members of the cabinet, officers of the army and navy, ambassadors and ministers of foreign countries and a great concourse of people from civil life the memorial services for the late King Humbert I. of Italy were held at St. Matthew's Catholic church at 11 o'clock Sunday. The announcement of the services was made by the Italian ambassador, Baron Fava, and with the co-operation of the state department the event was given a distinctly official character.

The church had been decorated liberally for the occasion. Around the sanctuary and on all sides arose a mass of palms and foliage plants, while the beautiful white marble altar stood out from a forest of tall and graceful palms. Immediately in front of the chancel rail stood the catafalque—a counterpart of that in which the dead monarch recently was laid to rest at Rome. Over it was thrown a heavy black pall, edged with white, and on top was a great garland of laurel and galax leaves, tied with flowing ribbons of red, white and green, the colors of Italy. At the head and foot of the casket tall candles burned.

The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Father Bart, assisted by Father Lee as deacon and Father Kervick as subdeacon. Father Chantell, of Georgetown university, was also in the sanctuary.

The service consisted of high mass, the usual sermon being omitted. At the close of the mass, the priests put aside their white vestments for those of black, and, descending from the sanctuary, moved about the casket, sprinkling it with holy water, praying for the repose of the soul of the dead king, and chanting the "Requiescat in Pace."

KILLING OF M'KINLEY WAS PROMISED BRESSI

A Letter Found in Which One Mabor Thus Urged the Assassination of Humbert.

London, Aug. 20.—The Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "The arrest of Maresca and Guida in New York arose out of some letters received at Bessi's lodging house subsequent to the assassination of King Humbert. One of these, dated New York, July 25, and signed 'Mabor,' urged Bessi to commit the crime, urging that Maresca and Guida would do their duty toward President McKinley. Maresca is known to the Italian police as a most fanatical anarchist."

GIRL FOUND MURDERED.

Believed She Surprised a Thief, as the Place Was Ransacked.

New York, Aug. 20. — Catherine Scharf, aged 22, was beaten to death with a hammer in her rooms on the second floor of 674 Second avenue. Her brother made the discovery when he came home.

The woman's body lay in a pool of blood, face downward. Nearby on the floor was a bloody hammer, and the rooms had been ransacked of everything of value. It is the opinion of the police that a thief entered the house and was surprised in his work by the girl and that he killed her to prevent identification.

The police detained Frederick Scharf, the brother of the murdered girl, and Lincoln Price. The latter is said to have been a frequent caller on Miss Scharf. So far the police have not given out any information to show that the two men are held other than as witnesses to be used at the coroner's inquest.

SNEAKTHIEF STOLE $2,200.

Walked Out of a Pittsburg Office With a Satchel Containing Wages.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—T. Wilson, a bookkeeper employed by the Epping-Carpenter company, went to the German National bank and drew out $2, 200 to make up his payroll. He placed the money in a leather satchel and went into one of the offices of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad to sign a receipt for some money.

He placed the satchel on the floor between his feet, and after signing the paper reached down for the satchel, but it was not there. Wilson's back had been to the door, and it is supposed a sneakthief, who had been following him, drew out the satchel and escaped with it. Detectives have a slim description of a man seen hurrying from the place with a satchel.

BRYAN ATTENDED CHURCH.

General J. B. Weaver Paid the Candidate a Visit.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 20. — General James B. Weaver, of Iowa, arrived here Sunday, on his way to Kansas, where he will make several speeches. He visited Mr. Bryan at the latter's residence, and they discussed the campaign at length. General Weaver expressed himself as much encouraged regarding the outlook.

Mr. Bryan attended church in the morning and went driving in the afternoon.

FOR ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.

Plans for the Resumption of the Work Considered.

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—Plans for the resumption of work on the World's Fair fund of $5,000,000, which has so often been interrupted, are under daily consideration by Chairman David R. Francis and William H. Thompson, of the two principal committees. Ex-Governor Francis expects to sail for Paris about September 15 and hopes to have things in such shape by that time that the fund will be practically complete. The traveling men, who have been active workers for the fair, have asked permission to locate their special building first. Communications from United States consuls at different points indicate the interest that is being manifested in the Louisiana Purchase Centennial abroad.

CHINA MUST SETTLE WITH 11 NATIONS.

China Will Have to Indemnify Them For Losses During the Boxer Disturbances.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Now that the primary object for which the allied armies marched upon Peking, viz., the rescue of the besieged legation, has been accomplished, the drift of discussion in official and diplomatic circles reverts to the next step to be taken. Necessarily many of the predictions as to what this will be are purely conjectural, as it is realized that complete and definite information regarding the condition of affairs in Peking must be awaited before any positive action can be taken by the governments whose interests have suffered as a result of the Chinese troubles.

"We are on the threshold of an entirely new condition of affairs; a new aspect confronts us," said a well-posted official of this government. "The efforts of the several governments during the past few weeks have been devoted to the rescue of the legation at Peking. Now that that has been accomplished, the course of the governments whose interests have been affected is for the present one largely of conjecture."

The presumption here is that the next move will be an agreement for an armistice. This may be undertaken by the commanders of the Chinese army and those of the allies on the spot where the fighting, according to the latest reports from Peking, appears to be still in progress. This accomplished, the question of the withdrawal of the foreign armies, the payment of indemnities, and many other problems may be left to commissions duly appointed to adjudicate them. Li Hung Chang has already been appointed a plenipotentiary by his government to negotiate terms of peace, and in this capacity he made an ineffectual attempt to stop the progress of the allies in their march on Peking. Whether Earl Li will be continued in that capacity by the imperial government is not known here, but such seems altogether probable, as with his well-known ability and his acquaintance with the world he would be able to possibly make better terms than any other Chinaman.

There are 11 nations, pointed out the same official, which have suffered as a result of the Chinese disturbances. All will expect a settlement of damages which have resulted from the Boxer outbreaks, the murder of missionaries, and the destruction of legation property. Spain is one of these, and, although she has not participated in the relief expedition, she has suffered alike with the others, and will expect to be indemnified for her losses. It can be stated authoritatively that up to this time there have been no exchanges between the United States and the other powers regarding the steps to be taken in the future to bring China to terms for the losses that have been incurred. The sole interest of the United States up to this time has been the rescue of legation, which is now an accomplished fact. Informal discussion has taken place between the president and his cabinet as to what this government will do to secure reparation for losses, but the conclusions reached are purely tentative and in no sense definite.

THREE MISSIONARIES MURDERED.

All Those Stationed at Pao Ting Fu Victims of the Boxers.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Presbyterian board of foreign missions in this city received the following cablegram: Che Foo — Definite news via Tien Tsin, missionaries Pao-Ting Fu all killed. W. O. Elterich.

Mr. Elterich is the Presbyterian board's member at Che Foo. It was thought that the Presbyterian missionaries at Pao Ting Fu number three, and that altogether there were ten foreign missionaries at that place.

IN HUMBERT'S MEMORY

COUNTERPART OF THE CATAFALQUE

Celebrated Mass—Priests Later Sprinkled Casket With Holy Water—Praying for Repose of Dead King's Soul—President McKinley Attended Services.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Amid scenes of impressive solemnity and in the presence of the president of the United States, members of the cabinet, officers of the army and navy, ambassadors and ministers of foreign countries and a great concourse of people from civil life the memorial services for the late King Humbert I. of Italy were held at St. Matthew's Catholic church at 11 o'clock Sunday. The announcement of the services was made by the Italian ambassador, Baron Fava, and with the co-operation of the state department the event was given a distinctly official character.

The church had been decorated liberally for the occasion. Around the sanctuary and on all sides arose a mass of palms and foliage plants, while the beautiful white marble altar stood out from a forest of tall and graceful palms. Immediately in front of the chancel rail stood the catafalque—a counterpart of that in which the dead monarch recently was laid to rest at Rome. Over it was thrown a heavy black pall, edged with white, and on top was a great garland of laurel and galax leaves, tied with flowing ribbons of red, white and green, the colors of Italy. At the head and foot of the casket tall candles burned.

The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Father Bart, assisted by Father Lee as deacon and Father Kervick as sub-deacon. Father Chantell, of Georgetown university, was also in the sanctuary.

The service consisted of high mass, the usual sermon being omitted. At the close of the mass, the priests put aside their white vestments for those of black, and, descending from the sanctuary, moved about the casket, sprinkling it with holy water, praying for the repose of the soul of the dead king, and chanting the "Requiescat in Pace."

KILLING OF M'KINLEY WAS PROMISED BRESSI

A Letter Found in Which One Mabor Thus Urged the Assassination of Humbert.

London, Aug. 20.—The Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "The arrest of Maresca and Guida in New York arose out of some letters received at Bessi's lodging house subsequent to the assassination of King Humbert. One of these, dated New York, July 25, and signed 'Mabor,' urged Bressi to commit the crime, urging that Maresca and Guida would do their duty toward President McKinley. Maresca is known to the Italian police as a most fanatical anarchist."

GIRL FOUND MURDERED.

Believed She Surprised a Thief, as the Place Was Ransacked.

New York, Aug. 20. — Catherine Scharf, aged 22, was beaten to death with a hammer in her rooms on the second floor of 674 Second avenue. Her brother made the discovery when he came home.

The woman's body lay in a pool of blood, face downward. Nearby on the floor was a bloody hammer, and the rooms had been ransacked of everything of value. It is the opinion of the police that a thief entered the house and was surprised in his work by the girl and that he killed her to prevent identification.

The police detained Frederick Scharf, the brother of the murdered girl, and Lincoln Price. The latter is said to have been a frequent caller on Miss Scharf. So far the police have not given out any information to show that the two men are held other than as witnesses to be used at the coroner's inquest.

SNEAKTHIEF STOLE $2,200.

Walked Out of a Pittsburgh Office With a Satchel Containing Wages.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—T. Wilson, a bookkeeper employed by the Epping-Carpenter company, went to the German National bank and drew out $2,200 to make up his payroll. He placed the money in a leather satchel and went into one of the offices of the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad to sign a receipt for some money.

He placed the satchel on the floor between his feet, and after signing the paper reached down for the satchel, but it was not there. Wilson's back had been to the door, and it is supposed a sneakthief, who had been following him, drew out the satchel and escaped with it. Detectives have a slim description of a man seen hurrying from the place with a satchel.

He visited Mr. Bryan at the latter's residence, and they discussed the campaign at length. General Weaver expressed himself as much encouraged regarding the outlook.

Mr. Bryan attended church in the morning and went driving in the afternoon.

FOR ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.

Plans for the Resumption of the Work Considered.

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—Plans for the resumption of work on the World's Fair fund of $5,000,000, which has so often been interrupted, are under daily consideration by Chairmen David R. Francis and William H. Thompson, of the two principal committees. Ex-Governor Francis expects to sail for Paris about September 15 and hopes to have things in such shape by that time that the fund will be practically complete. The traveling men, who have been active workers for the fair, have asked permission to locate their special building first. Communications from United States consuls at different points indicate the interest that is being manifested in the Louisiana Purchase Centennial abroad.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

AARON F. PERRY.

Aaron Fye Perry was a lawyer, an editor and a writer of marked ability. He was born in Leicester, Vermont, Jan. 1, 1815, and died in Cincinnati near the age of 70. His early education was received in the public schools of his native state. For a time he edited a newspaper and read law. Later he graduated from the law department of Yale, and was admitted to the bar in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1839.

He migrated to Columbus, where he began the practice of his profession, in which he proved eminently successful. He was associated in the practice with both Governor William Dennison and General H. B. Carrington. He then removed to Cincinnati, where he became associated with Alphonso Taft, afterward attorney general of the United States.

In 1847-1848 he represented Franklin and Madison counties in the lower house of the Forty-sixth general assembly. In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress, as a Republican, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and resigned the position in 1872, and was succeeded by Ozro J. Dodds, Democrat.

Mr. Perry's fame rests upon his great ability as a lawyer. For a long series of years he practiced in the supreme court of the United States, and was leading counsel in many of the cases growing out of the questions of the Civil war. He was a magazine writer of force and ability on public questions. In politics he was originally a Whig, and became identified with the Republican party upon its organization, and became an influential political leader.

JAMES MONROE.

James Monroe of Oberlin, Lorain county, was born in Plainfield, Connecticut, July 18, 1821. He attended the public schools and the Plainfield academy, and afterward graduated at Oberlin college in 1846, and afterward pursued a course of theological study in the same institution.

From 1849 to 1862 he was a professor in Oberlin college, and continued to be more or less intimately connected with that institution to the closing years of the century. He was an original Republican in politics. He served with credit and distinction in the Ohio house of representatives from 1856 to 1859, and in the state senate from 1860 to 1862, being president pro tempore in 1861-1862.

In the latter year he resigned from the senate to become United States consul at Rio de Janeiro, to which he had been appointed by President Lincoln. He served in that position until 1869, and was charge d'affaires for a portion of the time.

He was elected to the Forty-second congress in 1870 from the Fourteenth district, Lorain, Holmes, Ashland, Wayne and Medina counties. By the apportionment of 1872 he was placed in the Eighteenth district, composed of Lorain, Medina, Wayne and Summit counties, and from this district he was re-elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872, to the Forty-fourth in 1874, to the Forty-fifth in 1876, and to the Forty-sixth in 1878. He was recognized as among the ablest members of the house during his career in congress.

OZRO J. DODDS.

Ozro J. Dodds of Cincinnati, the successor of Aaron F. Perry, above, was a Democratic leader, a lawyer of marked ability and a gallant soldier. He was born in Cincinnati March 22, 1840, and died suddenly from injuries received from a misstep at the American House, in Columbus, at the age of 45. He graduated from the Hughes High school of his native city in 1858.

He entered the Miami university in 1860, and in 1861, at the beginning of the Civil war, he recruited a company of students for the first three months' service, of which he was commissioned captain. This company was assigned to the Twentieth Ohio Volunteer infantry, and served in the West Virginia campaign until the expiration of its enlistment. Captain Dodds then recruited company F of the Eighty-first Ohio, and commanded it until October, 1863, when he was commissioned lieutenant colonel of the First Alabama cavalry, made up of mountaineers from the northern part of that state. He was mustered out early in 1865.

He read law with Judge Stanley Matthews and was admitted to the practice in 1866. In 1869 he was elected as one of the representatives from Hamilton county to the house of the Fifty-ninth general assembly, and served for two years.

In 1872, upon the resignation of Aaron F. Perry, he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the First district, but failed of re-election to the succeeding congress.

WILLIAM P. SPRAGUE.

William P. Sprague was one of the leading citizens of McConnellsville, Morgan county, Ohio, where he was identified for a half century with all of its leading business and public interests, and where he died in April, 1899.

He served in the senate of the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth general assemblies from the Fourteenth senatorial district from 1860 to 1864. In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the Fifteenth district, Morgan, Monroe, Meigs, Washington and Athens counties, and was re-elected to the Forty-third congress from the same district in 1872. He was a merchant and was born in Morgan county May 27, 1827.

CHARLES FOSTER.

Charles Foster of Fostoria, Seneca county, served in congress, was governor of the state and secretary of the treasury. He was born in Seneca county, Ohio, April 12, 1828, and was educated in the public schools. For many years he was engaged in mercantile pursuits in Fostoria, with his father, and afterward on his own account. Later he engaged in banking, railway and manufacturing enterprises, and continued to reside in Fostoria until the close of the century. He entered congress in 1871, having been elected in 1870 to the Forty-second congress from the Ninth district, Seneca, Crawford, Huron, Erie, Sandusky and Ottawa counties. The apportionment of 1872 placed him in the Tenth district, Seneca, Hancock, Sandusky, Erie and Huron counties, from which he was re-elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872, to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876.

He was defeated for congress in 1890 by Darius D. Hare. He served with great distinction in congress, and was on nearly all the important committees of the house, being especially fitted for committee work. He made no pretense to the gifts and arts of the orator, but when he spoke on any question he was brief and plain and to the point. He was one of the original Republicans and always a consistent party liberal tolerant of those who differed from him. In 1879 he was a candidate for governor, and defeated his Democratic opponent, the younger, by a vote of 375,080 to 340,821. In 1881 he was a Republican candidate for governor, and was re-elected, Democrat, by a vote of 312,735 to 243,016. In March, 1891, Governor Foster entered the cabinet of President Benjamin Harrison as secretary of the treasury, and managed the affairs of that department with great skill and ability until the close of the administration.

As the result of his many enterprises Governor Foster had accumulated a large fortune, all of which was swept away by the disastrous panic of 1893, and he was left with little to support him in his old age.

CHARLES N. LAMISON.

Charles N. Lamison of Lima, Allen county, was a lawyer and a Democratic leader of much influence in the northwestern part of the state. He was associated as counsel with Senator Calvin S. Brice in nearly all of his great railway enterprises from 1870 to 1890, as well as in the practice before the courts. He was a soldier and an officer in the Civil war.

In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the Fifth district, composed of the counties of Allen, Van Wert, Mercer, Auglaize, Hardin, Hancock and Wyandot. In 1872, under a new apportionment, he was again elected from the Fifth district, embracing the counties of Allen, Defiance, Paulding, Putnam, Auglaize, Mercer and Shelby.

During his service in congress he was assigned to a number of the leading committees of the house, and was an efficient legislator. He was born in Columbia, Pennsylvania, in 1820.

MILTON SAYLER.

Milton Sayler was one of the brilliant lights of the Cincinnati bar for a quarter of a century, and after retiring from congress practiced law in New York city and Washington, D. C. He was born in Lewisburg, Preble county, Ohio, Nov. 4, 1831, and received his education mostly in the public schools, and graduated from Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, and from the Cincinnati Law school, and was admitted to the practice on reaching his majority and became a successful lawyer.

He was elected to the house of the Fifty-fifth general assembly in 1861 as one of the representatives from Hamilton county, and served one term in that body.

In 1872 he was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third congress from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth, in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876 from the same district. He was speaker of the house during a part of the Forty-fourth congress.

He took high rank as a member of congress during the six years of his service, and was placed on many of the most important committees of the house.

HENRY B. BANNING.

Henry Blackston Banning was born in Knox county, Ohio, Nov. 10, 1836, at what was known as Banning's Mills. He spent his boyhood days on a farm and about his father's extensive flouring mills, and began his education in the public schools and completed it in the Mt. Vernon Academy. He read law in the latter city and was admitted to the practice in 1857.

Originally he was a Whig, became a Republican, and in 1872, with the Greeley Liberal Republican movement, he affiliated with the Democratic party and defeated Rutherford B. Hayes for congress. At the close of the civil war he removed to Cincinnati, where he enjoyed a large and lucrative practice in his profession.

He enlisted as a private soldier in 1861, and by successive promotions, was mustered out of the service in 1865 with the rank of brigadier general, all his promotions coming for meritorious conduct. He was brevetted brigadier general for gallant conduct in the battle of Chickamauga. He participated in the battles of Nashville, Chickamauga, Atlanta and other important battles and military operations. He was a captain in the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; major of the Fifty-second; lieutenant colonel of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth; Colonel of the Eighty-seventh and of the One Hundred and Ninety-fifth, and was in command at Alexandria at the time of his muster out.

While yet in the army, in 1865, he was elected to the house of representatives of the Fifty-seventh general assembly by the people of Knox county, both parties uniting in his support. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county, as a Democrat, and re-elected from the same district to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876. He was chairman of the military committee, and on the judiciary and other important committees during his services in congress.

LEWIS B. GUNCKEL.

Lewis B. Gunckel of Dayton was born in Germantown, Ohio, Oct. 15, 1826. He graduated from the Farmers' college at Cincinnati in 1848, read law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and began practice at Dayton, where he became prominent in the profession. He was a Whig and afterward a Republican.

He was elected to the senate of the Fifty-fifth general assembly in 1861 and to the Fifty-sixth in 1863. He formulated measures for the relief of the dependent families of soldiers during the civil war and the act permitting soldiers to vote in the field.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Fourth district, Montgomery, Greene, Darke and Preble, and was defeated for the Forty-fourth by John A. McMahon. In 1871 he was appointed a special commissioner by President Grant to investigate the alleged frauds in the allotments to the Cherokee, Creek and Chickasaw Indians, and his exposures broke up the scandalous system of robbery which had prevailed for years.

JOHN Q. SMITH.

John Quincy Smith of Oakwood, Clinton county, was born near Waynesville, Warren county, Nov. 5, 1824. He attended the public schools, the Centerville academy, and graduated from the Miami university in 1844. After his graduation he resumed farming, and ten years later purchased and improved Oakwood farm, in Clinton county, where he continued to reside the remainder of the century.

When he was a young man he was a Whig, and then became a Free Soiler, being one of the most active delegates from Ohio to the Buffalo convention of 1848, and a member of the committee on resolutions. When the Republican party was organized, he affiliated with it until about the year 1880, when he drew away from it on the tariff issue, he opposing the "protective" idea, and joined the Democratic party.

He was a senator in the Fifty-fifth and again in the Sixty-fourth general assembly from the Fifth Senatorial district, Clinton, Greene and Fayette counties, and a representative from Clinton county in the Fifty-fifth general assembly, and was an efficient, practical legislator. He was a member of the state board of equalization in 1870-1871, having been elected without opposition.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Third district, Clinton, Warren, Butler, Fayette and Clermont counties, and served but a single term. He was a capable congressman, and his views commanded the highest respect. He failed of re-election, although a candidate, in 1874.

He was commissioner of Indian affairs from 1875 to 1877, and United States consul general at Montreal, Canada, from 1877 to 1882.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

AARON F. PERRY.

Aaron Fyfe Perry was a lawyer, an editor and a writer of marked ability. He was born in Leicester, Vermont, Jan. 1, 1815, and died in Cincinnati near the age of 70. His early education was received in the public schools of his native state. For a time he edited a newspaper and read law. Later he graduated from the law department of Yale, and was admitted to the bar in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1839.

He migrated to Columbus, where he began the practice of his profession, in which he proved eminently successful. He was associated in the practice with both Governor William Dennison and General H. B. Carrington. He then removed to Cincinnati, where he became associated with Alphonso Taft, afterward attorney general of the United States.

In 1847-1848 he represented Franklin and Madison counties in the lower house of the Forty-sixth general assembly. In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress, as a Republican, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and resigned the position in 1872, and was succeeded by Ozro J. Dodds, Democrat.

Mr. Perry's fame rests upon his great ability as a lawyer. For a long series of years he practiced in the supreme court of the United States, and was leading counsel in many of the cases growing out of the questions of the Civil war. He was a magazine writer of force and ability on public questions. In politics he was originally a Whig, and became identified with the Republican party upon its organization, and became an influential political leader.

JAMES MONROE.

James Monroe of Oberlin, Lorain county, was born in Plainfield, Connecticut, July 18, 1821. He attended the public schools and the Plainfield academy, and afterward graduated at Oberlin college in 1846, and afterward pursued a course of theological study in the same institution.

From 1849 to 1862 he was a professor in Oberlin college, and continued to be more or less intimately connected with that institution to the closing years of the century. He was an original Republican in politics. He served with credit and distinction in the Ohio house of representatives from 1856 to 1859, and in the state senate from 1860 to 1862, being president pro tempore in 1861-1862.

In the latter year he resigned from the senate to become United States consul at Rio de Janeiro, to which he had been appointed by President Lincoln. He served in that position until 1869, and was charge d'affaires for a portion of the time.

He was elected to the Forty-second congress in 1870 from the Fourteenth district, Lorain, Holmes, Ashland, Wayne and Medina counties. By the apportionment of 1872 he was placed in the Eighteenth district, composed of Lorain, Medina, Wayne and Summit counties, and from this district he was re-elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872, to the Forty-fourth in 1874, to the Forty-fifth in 1876, and to the Forty-sixth in 1878. He was recognized as among the ablest members of the house during his career in congress.

OZRO J. DODDS.

Ozro J. Dodds of Cincinnati, the successor of Aaron F. Perry, above, was a Democratic leader, a lawyer of marked ability and a gallant soldier. He was born in Cincinnati March 22, 1840, and died suddenly from injuries received from a misstep at the American House, in Columbus, at the age of 45. He graduated from the Hughes High school of his native city in 1858.

He entered the Miami university in 1860, and in 1861, at the beginning of the Civil war, he recruited a company of students for the first three months' service, of which he was commissioned captain. This company was assigned to the Twentieth Ohio Volunteer infantry, and served in the West Virginia campaign until the expiration of its enlistment. Captain Dodds then recruited company F of the Eighty-first Ohio, and commanded it until October, 1863, when he was commissioned lieutenant colonel of the First Alabama cavalry, made up of mountaineers from the northern part of that state. He was mustered out early in 1865.

He read law with Judge Stanley Matthews and was admitted to the practice in 1866. In 1869 he was elected as one of the representatives from Hamilton county to the house of the Fifty-ninth general assembly, and served for two years.

In 1872, upon the resignation of Aaron F. Perry, he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the First district, but failed of re-election to the succeeding congress.

WILLIAM P. SPRAGUE.

William P. Sprague was one of the leading citizens of McConnellsville, Morgan county, Ohio, where he was identified for a half century with all of its leading business and public interests, and where he died in April, 1899.

He served in the senate of the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth general assemblies from the Fourteenth senatorial district from 1860 to 1864. In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the Fifteenth district, Morgan, Monroe, Meigs, Washington and Athens counties, and was re-elected to the Forty-third congress from the same district in 1872. He was a merchant and was born in Morgan county May 27, 1827.

CHARLES FOSTER.

Charles Foster of Fostoria, Seneca county, served in congress, was governor of the state and secretary of the treasury. He was born in Seneca county, Ohio, April 12, 1828, and was educated in the public schools. For many years he was engaged in mercantile pursuits in Fostoria, with his father, and afterward on his own account. Later he engaged in banking, railway and manufacturing enterprises, and continued to reside in Fostoria until the close of the century. He entered congress in 1871, having been elected in 1870 to the Forty-second congress from the Ninth district, Seneca, Crawford, Huron, Erie, Sandusky and Ottawa counties. The apportionment of 1872 placed him in the Tenth district, Seneca, Hancock, Sandusky, Erie and Huron counties, from which he was re-elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872, to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876.

He was defeated for congress in 1890 by Darius D. Hare.

He served with great distinction in congress, and was on nearly all the important committees of the house, being especially fitted for committee work. He made no pretense to the gifts and arts of the orator, but when he spoke on any question he was brief and plain and to the point.

He was one of the original Republicans and always a consistent party

March, 1891, Governor Foster entered the cabinet of President Benjamin Harrison as secretary of the treasury, and managed the affairs of that department with great skill and ability until the close of the administration.

As the result of his many enterprises Governor Foster had accumulated

a large fortune, all of which was swept away by the disastrous panic of 1893, and he was left with little to support him in his old age.

CHARLES N. LAMISON.

Charles N. Lamison of Lima, Allen county, was a lawyer and a Democratic leader of much influence in the northwestern part of the state. He was associated as counsel with Senator Calvin S. Brice in nearly all of his great railway enterprises from 1870 to 1890, as well as in the practice before the courts. He was a soldier and an officer in the Civil war.

In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the Fifth district, composed of the counties of Allen, Van Wert, Mercer, Auglaize, Hardin, Hancock and Wyandot. In 1872, under a new apportionment, he was again elected from the Fifth district, embracing the counties of Allen, Defiance, Paulding, Putnam, Auglaize, Mercer and Shelby.

During his service in congress he was assigned to a number of the leading committees of the house, and was an efficient legislator. He was born in Columbia, Pennsylvania, in 1820.

MILTON SAYLER.

Milton Sayler was one of the brilliant lights of the Cincinnati bar for a quarter of a century, and after retiring from congress practiced law in New York city and Washington, D. C. He was born in Lewisburg, Preble county, Ohio, Nov. 4, 1831, and received his education mostly in the public schools, and graduated from Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, and from the Cincinnati Law school, and was admitted to the practice on reaching his majority and became a successful lawyer.

He was elected to the house of the Fifty-fifth general assembly in 1861 as one of the representatives from Hamilton county, and served one term in that body.

In 1872 he was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third congress from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth, in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876 from the same district. He was speaker of the house during a part of the Forty-fourth congress.

He took high rank as a member of congress during the six years of his service, and was placed on many of the most important committees of the house.

HENRY B. BANNING.

Henry Blackston Banning was born in Knox county, Ohio, Nov. 10, 1836, at what was known as Banning's Mills. He spent his boyhood days on a farm and about his father's extensive flouring mills, and began his education in the public schools and completed it in the Mt. Vernon Academy. He read law in the latter city and was admitted to the practice in 1857.

Originally he was a Whig, became a Republican, and in 1872, with the Greeley Liberal Republican movement, he affiliated with the Democratic party and defeated Rutherford B. Hayes for congress. At the close of the civil war he removed to Cincinnati, where he enjoyed a large and lucrative practice in his profession.

He enlisted as a private soldier in 1861, and by successive promotions, was mustered out of the service in 1865 with the rank of brigadier general, all his promotions coming for meritorious conduct. He was brevetted brigadier general for gallant conduct in the battle of Chickamauga. He participated in the battles of Nashville, Chickamauga, Atlanta and other important battles and military operations. He was a captain in the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; major of the Fifty-second; lieutenant colonel of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth; Colonel of the Eighty-seventh and of the One Hundred and Ninety-fifth, and was in command at Alexandria at the time of his muster out.

While yet in the army, in 1865, he was elected to the house of representatives of the Fifty-seventh general assembly by the people of Knox county, both parties uniting in his support. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county, as a Democrat, and re-elected from the same district to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876. He was chairman of the military committee, and on the judiciary and other important committees during his services in congress.

LEWIS B. GUNCKEL.

Lewis B. Gunckel of Dayton was born in Germantown, Ohio, Oct. 15, 1826. He graduated from the Farmers' college at Cincinnati in 1848, read law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and began practice at Dayton, where he became prominent in the profession. He was a Whig and afterward a Republican.

He was elected to the senate of the Fifty-fifth general assembly in 1861 and to the Fifty-sixth in 1863. He formulated measures for the relief of the dependent families of soldiers during the civil war and the act permitting soldiers to vote in the field.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Fourth district, Montgomery, Greene, Darke and Preble, and was defeated for the Forty-fourth by John A. McMahon. In 1871 he was appointed a special commissioner by President Grant to investigate the alleged frauds in the allotments to the Cherokee, Creek and Chickasaw Indians, and his exposures broke up the scandalous system of robbery which had prevailed for years.

JOHN Q. SMITH.

John Quincy Smith of Oakwood, Clinton county, was born near Waynesville, Warren county, Nov. 5, 1824. He attended the public schools, the Centerville academy, and graduated from the Miami university in 1844. After his graduation he resumed farming, and ten years later purchased and improved Oakwood farm, in Clinton county, where he continued to reside the remainder of the century.

When he was a young man he was a Whig, and then became a Free Soiler, being one of the most active delegates from Ohio to the Buffalo convention of 1848, and a member of the committee on resolutions. When the Republican party was organized, he affiliated with it until about the year 1880, when he drew away from it on the tariff issue, he opposing the "protective" idea, and joined the Democratic party.

He was a senator in the Fifty-fifth and again in the Sixty-fourth general assembly from the Fifth Senatorial district, Clinton, Greene and Fayette counties, and a representative from Clinton county in the Fifty-fifth general assembly, and was an efficient, practical legislator. He was a member of the state board of equalization in 1870-1871, having been elected without opposition.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Third district, Clinton, Warren, Butler, Fayette and Clermont counties, and served but a single term. He was a capable congressman, and his views commanded the highest respect. He failed of re-election, although a candidate, in 1874.

He was commissioner of Indian affairs from 1875 to 1877, and United States consul general at Montreal, Canada, from 1877 to 1882.

ST. PAUL SPEECH GARBLED.

Roosevelt Declared He Drew the Line Between Kansas City Platform and Other Democrats.

New York, Aug. 20. — Governor Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, L. I., gave out for publication a letter which he had written on Aug. 9 to General John M. Palmer, of Springfield, Ill., relative to the St. Paul speech made by the governor, in which he had been quoted as making derogatory remarks concerning Democrats. The letter said in part:

"I notice that in your recent very many interview stating why you could not support the Populist Democracy and the Kansas City platform and nominees you allude to a statement I was supposed to have made, attacking Democrats generally in my St. Paul speech.

"You have evidently seen a report which was not merely garbled, but falsified. I stand by this speech absolutely, and have nothing to explain in connection with it; but I do wish to point out where its meaning was deliberately inverted.

"In my speech I began by saying: 'We appeal not only to Republicans, but to all good citizens who are Americans in fact as well as in name, to help us in re-electing President McKinley. I ended by saying, 'Study the Kansas City platform, and you cannot help realizing that their policy (the policy of its makers and sponsors) is a policy of infamy; that their triumph would mean misery so widespread that it is almost unthinkable and a disgrace so lasting that more than a generation would have to pass before it could be wiped out. They stand for lawlessness and disorder, for dishonesty and dishonor, for license and disaster at home and cowardly shrinking from duty abroad. We ask the support of all Americans who have the welfare of their country at heart, no matter what their political affiliations may have been in the past.'

"You will see that I here most explicitly draw the line between the men who support and ask support for the Kansas City platform and all other citizens, whether Democrats or republicans. I feel that, as a matter of fact, the greatest possible credit is due to men like you, my dear sir, and to the other Gold Democrats who, four years ago, stood and now stand for national honor.

"I hold up the policy advocated in the Kansas City platform as a base and cowardly policy, to emphasize our right to appeal to the countless thousands of high-minded Democrats who abhor baseness and cowardice, and are quick to see and disown them."

THE KELLY AX PLANT BURNED.

Was Valued at About $800,000 — Not in the Trust.

Alexandria, Ind., Aug. 20.—The entire plant of the Kelly Ax Manufacturing company, valued at $800,000, was destroyed by fire. It was the largest ax factory in the world, employing some 800 or 1,000 men when running at full force. The company had just enlarged the factory, increasing the output fully one-third.

The fire started in the grinding department of the ax factory. A strong wind carried the flames to the pump house and doomed the entire works to destruction. In a short time the whole plant, covering 10 acres, was reduced to ashes. It was the only plant not in the trust; was valued at nearly a million dollars, and was expected to be taken out of the receiver's hands next January. So far as known, no one was hurt.

The insurance was thought to be about $450,000.

COURTESY TO THE CUBANS.

Washington, Aug. 20.—With cheers for Cuba, the United States, President McKinley and last, if not least their hosts, the people of the District of Columbia, the 1,400 Cuban school teachers left the city over the Pennsylvania railroad for New York. After the greater portion of the week spent there and in Philadelphia the entire party will embark on transport for Havana. The visitors were tired out thoroughly by their experiences of Saturday and enjoyed a good rest Saturday night. After an early breakfast Sunday most of them attended a solemn requiem mass at St. Patrick's church. After church they returned to the hotels, where they were grouped in squads and taken to the capitol, arriving there about 10 o'clock. The building was thrown open to the visitors and a detachment of guards was on hand to escort them. Coming back to their hotels they remained for a short while and then boarded the electric cars and went to the railroad station, where the special trains awaited them to carry the party to New York. A large crowd of Washington people were at the depot to see the visitors off and bid them godspeed on their journey.

The Cubans affectionately greeted General Cisneros, the former president of Cuba, who is in the city. Many of them threw their arms around the old veteran's neck and covered his gray bearded face with kisses. The mention of his name was a signal for a vociferous demonstration, ending in cheers for the "future president of Cuba." The whole party was delighted with their experiences in all the American cities they have visited and with their reception by the president Saturday.

SEVERE DROUGHT IN KANSAS.

Crops of That State May Be Materially Affected.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Two-thirds of Kansas west of the three easternmost tiers of counties is experiencing one of the most severe droughts in the history of the state, and the general opinion is that the Kansas crop will be the smallest in proportion to its requirements, for feeding that has been raised in many years. In 1899 it was 225,000,000 bushels. Secretary Coburn's report of conditions on Aug. 4 indicated a yield this year of about 145,000,000 bushels. Since then there have been two weeks of hot, dry weather, which has further materially reduced conditions and the most liberal estimates of well-informed men on 'change do not exceed 100,000,000 bushels, while many place the crop at not over 75,000,000 bushels.

ST. PAUL SPEECH GARBLED.

Roosevelt Declared He Drew the Line Between Kansas City Platform
and Other Democrats.

New York, Aug. 20. — Governor Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, L. I., gave out for publication a letter which he had written on Aug. 9 to General John M. Palmer, of Springfield, Ill., relative to the St. Paul speech made by the governor, in which he had been quoted as making derogatory remarks concerning Democrats. The letter said in part:

"I notice that in your recent very manly interview stating why you could not support the Populist Democracy and the Kansas City platform and nominees you allude to a statement I was supposed to have made, attacking Democrats generally in my St. Paul speech.

"You have evidently seen a report which was not merely garbled, but falsified. I stand by this speech absolutely, and have nothing to explain in connection with it; but I do wish to point out where its meaning was deliberately inverted.

"In my speech I began by saying: 'We appeal not only to Republicans, but to all good citizens who are Americans in fact as well as in name, to help us in re-electing President McKinley. I ended by saying, 'Study the Kansas City platform, and you cannot help realizing that their policy (the policy of its makers and sponsors) is a policy of infamy; that their triumph would mean misery so widespread that it is almost unthinkable and a disgrace so lasting that more than a generation would have to pass before it could be wiped out. They stand for lawlessness and disorder, for dishonesty and dishonor, for license and disaster at home and cowardly shrinking from duty abroad. We ask the support of all Americans who have the welfare of their country at heart, no matter what their political affiliations may have been in the past.'

"You will see that I here most explicitly draw the line between the men who support and ask support for the Kansas City platform and all other citizens, whether Democrats or republicans. I feel that, as a matter of fact, the greatest possible credit is due to men like you, my dear sir, and to the other Gold Democrats who, four years ago, stood and now stand for national honor.

"I hold up the policy advocated in the Kansas City platform as a base and cowardly policy, to emphasize our right to appeal to the countless thousands of high-minded Democrats who abhor baseness and cowardice, and are quick to see and disown them."

THE KELLY AX PLANT BURNED.

Was Valued at About $800,000 — Not in the Trust.

Alexandria, Ind., Aug. 20.—The entire plant of the Kelly Ax Manufacturing company, valued at $800,000, was destroyed by fire. It was the largest ax factory in the world, employing some 800 or 1,000 men when running at full force. The company had just enlarged the factory, increasing the output fully one-third.

The fire started in the grinding department of the ax factory. A strong wind carried the flames to the pump-house and doomed the entire works to destruction. In a short time the whole plant, covering 10 acres, was reduced to ashes. It was the only plant not in the trust; was valued at nearly a million dollars, and was expected to be taken out of the receiver's hands next January. So far as known, no one was hurt.

The insurance was thought to be about $450,000.

John Dungan was very drunk on Second street Saturday night and concluded to take a sleep. He lay down
across the pavement and Chief Thomp-
son found him in that position shortly
afterward and requested that he
leave a little room for pedestrians to
pass. This he refused to do and
sassed the officer.

The patrol was called and he was taken to jail. At the hearing today
he was fined $5 60.

F. Commer was arrested Saturday
by Chief Thompson on a complaint
made by Mrs. Poland, with whom he
boards, charging him with insulting
and using abusive language to her. He pleaded guilty and was assessed $5 60,
which he paid.

B. Hayes was so drunk on Sixth
street Sunday night that he was unable to walk, and Chief Thompson
took him to jail to rest for a while.
He pleaded guilty to intoxication
when brought before the mayor and
was fined $5 60. He paid the amount
and was released.

Mike Sullivan, in company with two
companions, were celebrating Satur-
day night in the vicinity of the Murphy pottery and in some manner be-
came involved in a fight with a stran-
ger. Sullivan was badly used up, having been kicked in the eye and other-
wise bruised.

Sullivan was so drunk he scarcely
knew how it happened, but claims he
can identify the man who did the
and a physician summoned, who fixed
up the eye, and Mike was permitted
to stop at the jail until this morning.

An attempt will be made to round
up the people who made the assault.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Walker Has Deserted
Her.

Lisbon, Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs.
Sophia Walker, of Lisbon, has sued for
a divorce from William D. Walker,
who now resides in Pittsburg. The
parties were married in Bridgeport

five years ago, and the wife charges
desertion. She also asks for alimony
and the custody of a minor child.

Mrs. Walker is the daughter of Geo.
E. Evans, manager of the American
tin plate mill in this city.

BURG, GIVES TO THE

St. Stephen's Church All the Carpets,
Rugs and Mats Needed to Fur-

St. Stephen's church has received a
very handsome donation from Mrs.
E. Pickering, of Pittsburg, a prominent member of the Episcopal church
of that city, who is much interested
in the work in this city.

Mrs. Pickering was seen Saturday
by Rev. E. Weary and agreed to donate all carpet necessary for the furnishing of the church. She has also
donated the rugs needed for the
sanctuary and the mast for the tower
and vestibules.

The mats will be made to order for
the church, and will have the name
of the church worked in them.

The carpet will be very handsome
and body Brussels.

The donation will save the church
several hundred dollars.

TO VOTE AGAIN.

The announcement has been made
that a congregational meeting will be
held Wednesday evening, August 29,
one week from next Wednesday evening.

A number of candidates have been heard since Rev. Fullmer declined a
call to the church, and it is thought
a selection will be made at the meeting and a call extended.

HIS LIFE.

Him in the Fore-
head.

Lisbon, August 20.—(Special.)—

upper tile works here, was instantly
killed this afternoon by the bursting
of the press.

him in the forehead, and he was
thrown 20 feet across the press.

Crawford was a married man and
leaves a wife and two children.

CHINA WANTS CONGER APPOINTED.

Special to News Review.

Washington, Aug. 20.—China has
asked the United States to appoint
Minister Conger or some other Ameri-
can official with authority to open negotiations for the establishment of
peace, and fix definite terms of settlement of the present trouble.

A similar peace application has been
sent to all the other powers.

A Severe Ducking Saturday Night
to Forget It.

THE JANITOR WAS MAD

He Don't Like People to Use the Church Vestibule For a
Eating Place.

IT WILL PROBABLY STOP

For several weeks parties have been
using the alley vestibule of the First Presbyterian church on Saturday
nights as a place to eat watermelon
and cantaloupes. They always forget
to take the rinds and seeds with them
and every Sunday morning Janitor
Broone had a mess to clean up.

Last Saturday night a couple hid
themselves to the vestibule taking
with them a luscious melon Janitor
Broone spied them and went after a
bucket of water. When he returned
they had just finished getting the
seeds out of the melon and were preparing to have their feast.

The janitor softly opened the vesti-
bule door and let fly with the water.
He washed the melon and seeds off
the vestibule, while the parties left
in a hurry. After they had fully decided what had happened they called
the janitor hard names and threatened
him with arrest, but he calmly gathered up the remains of their intended
feast and carried them to the furnace.

Janitor Broone has decided that people cannot lunch in that vestibule and
intends to keep a good watch in the future.

BODY LEFT ON THE TRACK SEV-ERAL DAYS.

Street Car According to Law Must Bury Animals Killed by Their Employees.

A street car killed a dog near Laughlin's pottery several days ago,
and the remains have been lying
there ever since. Patrons of the line
have been objecting to its presence
and had notified the health authorities, who have ordered the body removed.

It is a fact that is perhaps not generally known that the same regulations apply to street car companies
in the disposition of animals killed by
them as that which governs the railroads.

The law requires that the companies
remove the animals immediately
after they are killed, and the local
health authorities have nothing whatever to do with such cases.

WEBB WASN'T OUT.

If the Decision of the Umpire Had
Been Correct the Game Today
Wouldn't Have Been Necessary.

In the last Shamrock-Eclipse game
Webb fell coming home and Godwin
picked him up and practically carried
him across the plate, but Umpire Howard called him out.

The decision was questioned at the
time and somebody asked information

from the Pittsburg Dispatch, receiv-
ing the following answer:

W. F. K., East Liverpool says: "A
is on second base, B comes to bat and
cracks out a two-base hit. A tries to
score but stumbles and falls down
with 10 feet of the home plate. C,
who is coaching at third, assists A to
the plate. The umpire calls A out for C's interference. Is the decision correct?"

According to Hank O'Day, the
league umpire who officiated at the
Pittsburg-Brooklyn game Saturday,
the umpire could not call the player
out for interference, the only thing he
could do being to put the coacher out
of the game.

Under the circumstances and allowing that Howard had no right to put Godwin out of the game his decision
was morally right.

BASSING BURNED.

Which He Had Placed in a Tub of Water for the Purpose
of Cooling.

Willim Bassing, of Fourth street,
an employe of the Thompson pottery,
was severely burned about the face
Saturday.

Bassing was repairing the wagon
which he was driving and had heated
a piece of gas pipe for the purpose
of enlarging a hole in the shaft. The
pipe became too hot and Bassing attempted to cool it by putting it in a
tub of water.

The steam made by the red hot iron
coming suddenly in contact with the
water came back through the pipe,
striking Mr. Bassing full in the face.

The man was almost blinded for a
time, and while his face was badly
blistered and burned, the accident
might have been much worse.

BLAZE LAST NIGHT ON A STREET

Flames Came Through the Floor of
the Car and Passengers Were Slightly Excited.

Last night as street car No. 37 was
rounding the curve at Brady's cut
smoke was discovered issuing from
time a blaze was coming through the
floor of the car.

Some of the ladies in the car became excited and left their seats, but
were soon convinced that there was
no danger.

The car was run to the watering
tough, where water was secured and
the fire put out. It was probably
caused by a hot box.

WILLIS WELLS TOOK A HEADER

Tried to Get on a Moving Street
Car With the Usual
Result.

LANDED IN THE STREET

That Would Do Credit to a Professional Gymnast.

CARS ARE RUN TOO FAST

Willis Wells yesterday afternoon
met with a serious accident at the corner of Fifth and Market streets
while attempting to board a Southside
street car.

The usual Sunday custom of running two cars was followed yester-
day and Willis grabbed the first car,
which takes no passengers until the
lower end of Third street is reached.
Wells clung to the handle for some
distance, but was unable to get
aboard the car.

Finally he let go his hold and
soared into the air, alighting in the middle of the street on all fours. He
then performed a slide that would
have excited the envy of a profession-
al base ball player.

When he gathered himself up Wells
found that both knees were badly
skinned and he had sustained several
other bruises. An examination of his
clothes developed the fact that the
trousers were ruined and several rents
were torn in his coat.

William Russell came near meeting
with a similar fate on the very next
car that passed, the only thing that
saved him was the fact that the car
had just started and the speed was
not so great.

Complaint has been made that the
cars are run too fast through the Diamond, but the citizens feel assured
that the management of the line
would not sanction the action if they
knew it, as they have been very careful to prevent accidents taking place
on their line.

SPRING GROVE.

What the People at This Summer Resort Are Doing to Put in
the Time.

Miss Helen Andrews is suffering
with a very severe carbuncle upon her
left hand.

Dr. Earl D. Holtz and family are
now residents of the dormitory.

George Laird returned Saturday to
his home in Wheeling after spending
the summer with Mr. and Mrs. N. T.
Ashbaugh.

Some time ago the old Smith and Metsch cottages were torn down and
the debris has never been cleaned up.
Arrangements are being made for a
bon fire tomorrow night.

The Hilltops and Tombstones will
play ball tomorrow evening.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. J. E.
Brookes drove to the ground. When
they were ready to start home the
horse was feeling frisky and before
Mr. Brookes could get in the buggy
it started to run. Charlie Ashbaugh
stopped it before any damage resulted.

trip in the interest of the Sebring pottery of East Palestine.

COMRADE J. M'COY WRITES A LETTER

From the National Military Home,
Situated at Dayton,
Ohio.

VETERANS WELL CARED FOR

They Miss Only the Comforts of a
Private Home, With Wife
and Children.

EAST LIVERPOOL MAY EXCURT.

"Comrade Palmer, I promised you when last in East Liverpool that I would give you a letter from this point, and I now make that promise good. You will pardon mistakes, as I make no pretensions as a newspaper correspondent.

"We have about 300 sick in the hospital at the present time. They are well cared for by Surgeon Hoffman, of Pittsburg, and Dr. Miller, of Johnstown, Pa.

"Cleanliness is one of the essential requirements at this model veteran's home. We have a splendid laundry, under skillful management. All inmates must bathe at least once per week, and the facilities for bathing are exceptionally fine.

"We have in all 35 barracks at this point. No. 1 will accommodate 450 men. Yours truly is in No. 6, and I have 599 comrades bunking with me. Captain Harvey is in charge of No. 6 barracks. He is a Christian gentleman and a strong advocate of total abstinence.

"Bugle call strings out at 5 a. m., when we tumble out and make our beds. The bell rings for first table at 5:45. Some 3,000 or more veterans respond to this first table call. The second table call rings at 6:15 a. m.

"For breakfast we have good bread, butter, coffee, milk, sugar and possibly cold boiled ham. We are not stinted in any manner, but are given all that we can eat. For dinner we have soup, meat, bread and butter, with plenty of the best of coffee to wash the edibles down. For supper we have bread and butter, tea, cakes and cheese. On Sunday, for dinner, we have elegant mutton stew, prepared by those who know how to make palatable stews. It requires 52 sheep to supply the camp for a Sunday dinner, backed up with seven vinegar barrels of murphys, peeled and sliced. The majority of us are good feeders and make full harvest hands at the table.

"We have a splendid fire department, manned exclusively by old veterans. We have a fine library and reading room, a club room and a billiard parlor; we also have a nice opera house, all for the benefit of the old soldier boys. All that is necessary is for a man to behave himself as a man should. If an inmate misbehaves he goes to the guard house and finally appears before the governor of the Home for trial. If found guilty, he goes on the dump, has his pass taken away and is compelled to do police duty in cleaning the streets and camp.

Your humble servants holds a red card pass, signed by the governor, said pass granting all of the Sunday privileges and permitting me to go out and in as often as I see fit, on Sunday or week day.

"We have formed a soldiers' and sailors' temperance union, 550 strong. It is a branch of the Womans' Christian Temperance union. I have the honor of being a charter member. We are pushing our organization with might and main; and, by the help of God, we will drive King Alcohol from this point just as effectually as we drove Lee and his army away from Gettysburg. We will do better work than our townsmen did at East Liverpool in your late campaign against the saloon.

"Comrade Palmer, it is a glorious sight to see more than 500 of the old boys of the sixties wearing the badge of the Womans' Christian Temperance union on the lapels of their coats. When we go down to Dayton they try to persuade us to remove the badge, but we let them know it is there to stay for the remainder of our lives.

We had a large number of excursionists here from Sandusky. We have excursions coming to this point almost every day, inspecting our lakes, parks and plants and our $10,000 green house, and the splendid painting of the battle of Gettysburg.

"We have the very best of treatment, good quarters and good food, with all the enjoyments we could ask for. The only thing lacking is the idea of your own private hearthstone, your own vine and fig tree, with loving wife and dutiful and loving children by your side.

"By the way, Comrade Palmer, use the influence of the News Review in having an excursion from East Liverpool to this point. It is only seven hours' run from East Liverpool to Dayton. We would give the Liverpoolites a warm reception and I believe that every excursionist would be delighted with our splendid Home and surroundings. We have a fine hotel on the grounds and can furnish the best of fare at most reasonable prices. Stir the matter up, and don't fail to come yourself.

"All the East Liverpool comrades at this point are well and send kindest regards to Comrade Palmer and all of the friends who have any interest in their welfare.

"Respectfully,
"JOSEPH M'COY,
"Barracks No. 6, National Military Home, Ohio."

TAKE IN THE FAIR.

You Will Have Oceans of Fun, Laugh
and Grow Fat and Hearty.

Are you going to the fair? What fair? Why, the Hookstown fair, of course. Everybody goes that can possibly secure a conveyance, and when they can't secure a conveyance, they take their foot in their hand and get there anyhow. The grounds have been much improved lately; the race track has been put in good shape; fast speeders will be on hand and there will be fun galore. You cannot afford to miss this fair, occurring Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 21, 22 and 23.

—Miss Carrie McKee returned to her home in Toronto after spending Sunday in this city.

TEN DOLLARS.

This Contribution Will Support Two Families for the Period of 60 Days.

A resident of East Liverpool, representing his family, gave into the hands of the News Review, on Saturday last, the sum of $10 for the India famine fund. An order had been sent forward in the forenoon, but this $10 gift was sent speeding after it on Saturday evening, as the delay of a few hours might mean the unnecessary sacrifice of human lives.

Readers of the News Review, study this $10 gift for a moment; consider what it will do in India. It will feed two families of four persons each for the period of two months and bid the gaunt wolf of starvation defiance. Eight human beings saved and made comparatively happy. A glorious record to face the generous donors in the day of final accounting. Speaking with reverence, we dare here assert that our God is a good and generous paymaster. He returns both principal and interest. Test the matter. Give in the right spirit. Don't have any pull-back strings on your gift. Give because you are glad to give. Give because it warms your heart to do so. Give for the reason that you have awakened to the full realization of the truth of the saying that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." Give at once. Give while the need is great. Save human lives—lives of men, women and children. Give cheerfully. Why? Because the "Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

Ohio is responding to the call of sweet charity in a way and a manner which cover a multitude of sins, and God knows that we have sore need of a such a covering. East Liverpool has given right nobly; but she is able to give much more. Cut off your saloon bills, men of East Liverpool. We have many noble fellows who are slowly but surely becoming victims of the rum demon, as he lurks in the bottom of the whisky, wine, brandy, gin and beer glass. Think of it, ye good-hearted toiler; the price of a glass of beer will feed two starving people in India for a day, while a glass of whisky, or two glasses of beer will cost you the same sum as would keep four people for a day. The liquor will bring with it a curse to yourself and to your family; the giving to the starving ones will bring you a blessing. Test the matter. Drop the saloon and aid your brother.

God bless the givers of the $10 above mentioned.

CHURCH SERVICE.

Rev. Ball Occupied the Pulpit of the
First Presbyterian Church Morn-
ing and Evening.

There was a nice audience present at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Rev. Ball, of Utica, N. Y., occupied the pulpit. The writer had the pleasure of listening to the morning sermon; subject 137th Psalm and 4th verse: "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?" The reverend gentleman's exposition of the subject was a very pleasing one. He asserted that we cannot sing the Lord's song correctly and with outreaching power and efficacy until we first have the music in our own hearts and lives, the experimental knowledge of the love of God within us; the knowledge of which passeth all understanding.

The speaker preaches the plain gospel of the love of God for fallen humanity; his justice, tempered with boundless mercy, through the sacrifice made on calvary by the Savior of mankind. It was a sermon well worth listening to; a sermon calculated to do a sinner immeasurable good, if said sinner would but open his heart and let the spirit of truth come in. Rev. Ball made many friends in the congregation by his pleasant, unassuming manner.

People Who Are in the Metropolis.

Crockery Journal.
Colonel Rhodes arrived at the Astor on the colonel, though that could not House on Monday. There are no flies he said of him last week in Philadelphia. His room at the hotel overlooked a livery stable, at which all flies living in the city paused awhile in their flights of pleasure, and when they had visited there to their hearts' content they called on Rhodes. Flies and heat! No wonder he was glad to get to New York.

H. A. McNicol, of the Dresden pottery, East Liverpool, was in New York on Tuesday on his way home. He spent a part of his vacation at Atlantic City and the rest in Boston.

S. C. Downs, with Vodrey & Bro., East Liverpool, is making his first trip to New York. He opened at the Astor House on Monday for the week only.

Trenton Jiggermen Have Started
an Opposition to the N. B.
of O. P.

CHARTER TAKES IN ALL HANDS

It Is Stated That at Least 150 Kiln-
men Have Quit Paying Dues
to Brotherhood.

A TRENTON VIEW OF IT

The Trenton True American still
thinks the uniform scale will never
be enforced in that city and in the
issue of Saturday says:

It was stated by several kilnmen
last evening that about 150 work-
men in that branch of the pottery
trade have refused to pay any more
dues in the Brotherhood of Operative Potters, owing to dissatisfaction with
the new scale.

It has been the custom for some
time among the Brotherhood to contribute 1 per cent of their weekly
earnings toward establishing a sinking fund.

Since the agitation of the new scale
question this weekly assessment, it is
said, has fallen off considerably, until
now it is collected in only two potter-
ies in this city—the Mercer and Cook's.

It is believed by many that the kiln-
men who are dissatisfied with the
scale will leave the Brotherhood and
set up an independent organization of
their own.

Another 30 applications for admission were presented before the jig-
germen's meeting last night, and they
will be admitted at the next meeting.

The jiggermen decided to throw
open their charter to the other
branches of the trade last night, as
they had been asked by a number of
the kilnmen whether or not they
would be allowed to become members.

The new scale received a great
amount of discussion, and the jig-
germen are as determined as ever not
to accept it.

Judging from the dissatisfaction
that reigns in the ranke of the Brotherhood the new scale is not likely to
be enforced in the potteries in this
city.

One prominent member of the kiln-
men's union said last night that it is
the belief of nearly all the kilnmen
that President Hughes went back
home because he was thoroughly dis-
gusted with the way the potters in
this city took hold of the new scale.

It is known that the wages of the
potters in the west have been greatly
increased by the new scale, but the
potters in the east attribute it to their
superior facilities.

MILLER IS MAD.

Says Sebring People Should Look
After Their Cases in Better
Shape.

On Saturday Constable Miller arrested William Green on a warrant
sent here from Sebring. Green was charged with jumping a board bill,
and when arraigned gave security for
his appearance today.

Miller attempted to communicate
with Mayor Albright, of Sebring, but
was unsuccessful; the mayor was
at Hollow Rock.

The constable has nowed decided
to allow the prisoner to go unless he
receives some word from the authorities at Sebring.

Miller asserts that the people there
are directly interested and should

look after their affairs better, so he
will let the matter drop where it is.

CARRON'S COURT.

After the Trouble Had Been Settled
Wedgewood Arrived on the Scene
And Talked Loud.

Business was slow in the court of Justice McCarron on Saturday night,
and at 9 o'clock in the evening he was
about to close up for the week when
Mrs. Elizabeth Wedgewood appeared
at the office and swore out a warrant
against Joseph and Grace Hecka-
thorne, charging them with assault
and battery.

The parties were arraigned and Mr.
Heckathorne, after some deliberation,
decided to plead guilty. He was fined
$1 and costs, which he paid.

The families are neighbors and reside on the Calcutta road. They don't get on well, and on Saturday evening
had some words, which resulted in a
small-sized row.

Heckathorne asserts that he merely
pushed the Wedgewood woman away
when she attempted to hit his wife,
but in order to avoid trouble concluded
to plead guilty.

Mrs. Heckathorne plead not guilty
and the case will be heard on Wednesday at 7 p. m.

Mr. Wedgewood came to the office
after the matter had been disposed
of and demanded to know who assaulted his wife. He was very angry
and talked in a loud voice. The squire
soon settled him, however, by having
him taken from the office, telling the
man he would be locked up if he persisted in annoying the court.

Convicted Man So Character-
izes His Trial.

ALLEGES IT A POLITICAL SCHEME.

Declares It Will Hurt the Opponent
Party—The Prisoner Unanimously Condemned by the Jury to Life Imprisonment—He Was Terribly Shocked.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20. — Caleb
Powers issued a statement as follows:

I am asked my opinion concerning
my trial and the verdict of the jury.
Could I have but one opinion? Can
any fair-minded man or woman of
this state have but one? That one of
the greatest judicial farces known to
history has been enacted here in my
trial, under the forms of law. No well-
informed man can doubt. Innocence
is no shield with $100,000 and the
methods of Campbellism against you.
The rectitude of one's past life counts
for naught. They say Taylor is guilty
because he was at his office, and that I am guilty because I was away from
mine. This has been a political trial
throughout for political purposes, and
no greater mistake has been made by
the Democratic party, since they rob-
bed us of the offices to which we were
fairly elected by the people. There are
good men and noble women in the Democratic party, and many of them.
They are not all bad, far from it. A
great many of them do not endorse
the theft of the state offices. A great
many more will not endorse this mock-
ery of a trial, this prostitution of the courts of justice for certain ends. From
the beginning of the campaign until
now I have stood with what little of
merit I have had for the rights and liberties of the people. That is my crime. That is the only offense I have committed. That is the only thing proven against me. I swore to that myself
in my testimony. I have never had
and I now have no apology to make for
being true to the trust imposed upon
me by the majority of the voters of
this state. History will draw its dark
lines around those who have outraged
and disgraced the judiciary and black-
ened the history of the state. I am very respectfully, Caleb Powers.

The case of Henry Youtsey will be
called today, but as the defendant has
not fully recovered it was not certain
last night whether the case will go to
trial. As much, if not more difficulty
was expected in securing a jury than
in the Powers case, as nearly everybody
in the county became disqualified by
hearing evidence in the Powers trial.
It is probable that Judge Cantrill will
summon a venire from the adjoining
counties.

Georgetown, Aug. 20.—"We, the jury,
find the defendant guilty, and fix his
punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for the rest of his natural
life."

This was the wording of the verdict
rendered in the case of ex-Secretary
of State Caleb Powers, charged with
being accessory before the fact to the
murder of William Goebel. The jury
retired at 1:32 p. m. and returned its
verdict at 2:25, having been out only 53 minutes.

Powers, always pale, grew ghastly
white as the verdict was read and his
face betokened great mental anguish.
Then, somewhat regaining his compos-
ure, he turned to the Misses Danger-
field, who had been in conversation
with him, and said:

"I was not expecting that. The verdict is unjust."

Powers remained in the courtroom
for some time after the verdict was
rendered in conference with his attorneys, who will at once move for a
new trial, and, failing that, will take
an appeal.

He Introduced Archbishop Ireland, Who
Talked on Matters in America.
At the Vatican.

Rome, Aug. 20.—Sunday being the feast of St. Joachim, the pope's patron
saint, there was a large gathering at
the vatican of cardinals, bishops and
presidents of societies. The pope,
who was in excellent health and spir-
its, spoke at some length regarding
matters of Catholic interest, and then,
with a complimentary introduction, invited Archbishop Ireland to address
the assembly on matters in America
and the relations of the outer world
to the holy see.

Mgr. Ireland, who was frequently
applauded during a speech of 20 minutes, spoke glowingly of the fidelity
of American Catholics to the Roman
church and the holy see. He described
liberty under the American flag and
set forth the necessity of the pope, as
the head of Christendom, being free
and independent to any one civil power
"so as to be in fact as well as of right
the sovereign teacher and ruler of all
nations and peoples without special dependency on any special nation or people."

The address gave visible satisfaction.
Mgr. Ireland had a final audience
with the pope on Friday.

ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN BACK.

Had Six Interviews With the Pope, Two of Them Personal Ones.

New York, Aug. 20. — Among the passengers who arrived on board the American line steamship St. Louis from Southampton were Archbishop Corrigan and Bishop McDonnell, of Brooklyn. The prelates were met at quarantine by a large delegation of
clergymen and friends.

Archbishop Corrigan's health has
been greatly benefited by the trip
abroad and he said that his four
months' tour on the other side of the Atlantic was a four months' round of
pleasant visits. While in Rome he
had six interviews with Pope Leo XIII, two of which were personal
ones.

SOON TO REPORT TO THE POPE.

A Letter From Chappelle Received in Washington.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Archbishop
Chappelle, the apostolic delegate to the Philippines, has written to one of the
pastors here that his investigation of
church affairs there is about ended,
and he expects to make his personal
report to the pope early in November.

For some time past there have been
rumors that Dr. Chappelle is strongly
in favor of the friars, but nothing definite on the subject will be known
until he acquaints Pope Leo with the
result of his observations. Dr. Chap-
pelle will not return to his see before
next spring, as he intends to spend the winter in France.

Of His Mind.

"Have you forgotten that X that you
borrowed of me some time ago?"
"Oh, no; I still have it in my mind."
"Well, don't you think this would be
a good time to relieve your mind of it?"

MONDAY, AUGUST 20, 1900.

This Date in History—Aug. 20.

- 1591—Robert Herrick, English poet, chiefly noted as successor of Shakespeare, born. Herrick led the life of a bohemian for many years after leaving Cambridge, but later took orders and became vicar of Dean Prior, in Devonshire. The long parliament ejected him, but he was restored by Charles II. Herrick's poems were neglected for more than a century after his death. Since 1810 several editions of Herrick's works have been published in England and America and some of his shorter songs set to music. His "Hesperides" is the most noted.
- 1745—Francis Asbury, with Coke, the first Methodist bishop in America, was born in Staffordshire; died 1816.
- 1794—Battle at Maumee rapids, Ohio; General Anthony Wayne defeated the Miami and other Indians.
- 1860—Honore de Balzac, French novelist, died in Paris; born 1799.

THE OPEN DOOR.

The reverend gentleman occupying the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church of East Liverpool yesterday, thanked God for the open door in China, and prayed that it might continue open to the advanced civilization of the world. He fervently thanked God for the relief of Conger and the legations there surrounded by a savage foe. The reverend gentleman's talk has the right ring.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE.

We mean you. A personal application. You. When you wink at the evils arising from the accursed saloon in East Liverpool, asserting that it is none of your business, you are guilty of that which you know to be false; and you know, if you know anything, that you will be compelled to answer for your guilt in the great day of final judgment. If you support an evil, directly or indirectly, you become part and parcel of that evil. Clear your skirts.

WAR VERSUS PEACE.

Billie Jennings Bryan and his peace howlers have had their innings. They ran well for a time and seemed on the crest of the wave which rises to success. But the undertow of right and justice and patriotism has caught the public pulse—the hearts of the masses—and from this time forth Billy Jennings Bryan and his croakers will be submerged and finally drowned. Peace is a grandly glorious feature, and much to be desired; but when had at the expense of right and justice and honor and patriotism, it becomes an undesirable feature. Conger would have very much liked to have had peace exist at Peking, China; but the Boxers forced war upon the legations, and the latter entered upon the spirit and letter of war in a manner which surprised their bloodthirsty and savage assailants. The United States forces at Manila desired peace with the Filipinos; but the latter subjected Uncle Sam's boys to any and every class of insult, until the dusky fellows reached the conclusion that they had cowards to deal with and assaulted our boys, with orders from Aguinaldo to exterminate the Americans; and then the latter, as gallant boys as ever faced a foe, showed the metal of which they are composed, and hunted traitor Aguinaldo and his followers to their dens. Billie Jennings Bryan has demonstrated the fact that he is not possessed of courage or sand, as shown by his conduct when he resigned the commission which he had accepted. And now he and his followers are giving aid and comfort to the most treacherous foe that ever faced United States troops, rejoicing over the killing of our soldier boys by the Filipinos, and branding our troops as murderers when they hunt the red Indians from their lairs. The custody of the Philippines on the part of the United States is the natural outcome and sequence of the Spanish-American war, and if the insurgents keep up their hostile attitude against our forces, we will compel honorable peace, even if we find it necessary to let loose the dogs of war to accomplish our desire.

CROPS ARE GOOD.

Hancock County Farmers Say the Potato Crop This Year Will be Good.

Reports from the country districts of West Virginia are to the effect that the crop of potatoes this year gives promise of being better than for the past eight years.

Unless something unusual happens corn will be more plentiful and of a better quality than has been known in five or six years.

Other agricultural products are doing well this year, and if present indications can be taken for anything crops in every particular will be better and more plentiful than for many years.

ROY KNOB WAS HIT BY A TRAIN

And While Returning to the City Was Hit by a Fast Train.

WELL KNOWN IN THIS CITY

Roy Knob, son of William Knob, of East Palestine, was instantly killed in that city Saturday night.

Knob was about 18 years of age and was well known in this city, especially in the East End.

Saturday night he went home with a young lady named Johnson, who lives about three-quarters of a mile from East Palestine. He left her and was seen passing through Lowtown, a small village west of East Palestine, about 10:30 o'clock. This was the last time he was seen alive.

About 5:30 Sunday morning William Johnson, who is gate keeper at the works, and father of the girl Knob took home, was going to his work when he came across the body. He notified the ticket agent and the body was picked up and taken to the undertaker's on a hand car, where it was identified as that of Knob.

Coroner Straughn was notified and

arrived in East Palestine before noon, and after investigating the case rendered a verdict of accidental death.

The theory is that Knob was walking along the track and heard a freight coming and stepped across to the other track when No. 5, a fast through train, hit him.

His body was very badly mangled, his under jaw being broken in two places, his shoulder blades torn loose, his right hand and left leg being broken.

AARON F. PERRY.

Aaron Fyfe Perry was a lawyer, an editor and a writer of marked ability. He was born in Leicester, Vermont, Jan. 1, 1815, and died in Cincinnati near the age of 70. His early education was received in the public schools of his native state. For a time he edited a newspaper and read law. Later he graduated from the law department of Yale, and was admitted to the bar in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1839.

He migrated to Columbus, where he began the practice of his profession, in which he proved eminently successful. He was associated in the practice with both Governor William Dennison and General H. B. Carrington. He then removed to Cincinnati, where he became associated with Alphonso Taft, afterward attorney general of the United States.

In 1847-1848 he represented Franklin and Madison counties in the lower house of the Forty-sixth general assembly. In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress, as a Republican, from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and resigned the position in 1872, and was succeeded by Ozro J. Dodds, Democrat.

Mr. Perry's fame rests upon his great ability as a lawyer. For a long series of years he practiced in the supreme court of the United States, and was leading counsel in many of the cases growing out of the questions of the Civil war. He was a magazine writer of force and ability on public questions. In politics he was originally a Whig, and became identified with the Republican party upon its organization, and became an influential political leader.

JAMES MONROE.

James Monroe of Oberlin, Lorain county, was born in Plainfield, Connecticut, July 18, 1821. He attended the public schools and the Plainfield academy, and afterward graduated at Oberlin college in 1846, and afterward pursued a course of theological study in the same institution.

From 1849 to 1862 he was a professor in Oberlin college, and continued to be more or less intimately connected with that institution to the closing years of the century. He was an original Republican in politics. He served with credit and distinction in the Ohio house of representatives from 1856 to 1859, and in the state senate from 1860 to 1862, being president pro tempore in 1861-1862.

In the latter year he resigned from the senate to become United States consul at Rio de Janeiro, to which he had been appointed by President Lincoln. He served in that position until 1869, and was charge d'affaires for a portion of the time.

He was elected to the Forty-second congress in 1870 from the Fourteenth district, Lorain, Holmes, Ashland, Wayne and Medina counties. By the apportionment of 1872 he was placed in the Eighteenth district, composed of Lorain, Medina, Wayne and Summit counties, and from this district he was re-elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872, to the Forty-fourth in 1874, to the Forty-fifth in 1876, and to the Forty-sixth in 1878. He was recognized as among the ablest members of the house during his career in congress.

OZRO J. DODDS.

Ozro J. Dodds of Cincinnati, the successor of Aaron F. Perry, above, was a Democratic leader, a lawyer of marked ability and a gallant soldier. He was born in Cincinnati March 22, 1840, and died suddenly from injuries received from a misstep at the American House, in Columbus, at the age of 45. He graduated from the Hughes High school of his native city in 1858.

He entered the Miami university in 1860, and in 1861, at the beginning of the Civil war, he recruited a company of students for the first three months' service, of which he was commissioned captain. This company was assigned to the Twentieth Ohio Volunteer infantry, and served in the West Virginia campaign until the expiration of its enlistment. Captain Dodds then recruited company F of the Eighty-first Ohio, and commanded it until October, 1863, when he was commissioned lieutenant colonel of the First Alabama cavalry, made up of mountaineers from the northern part of that state. He was mustered out early in 1865.

He read law with Judge Stanley Matthews and was admitted to the practice in 1866. In 1869 he was elected as one of the representatives from Hamilton county to the house of the Fifty-ninth general assembly, and served for two years.

In 1872, upon the resignation of Aaron F. Perry, he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the First district, but failed of re-election to the succeeding congress.

WILLIAM P. SPRAGUE.

William P. Sprague was one of the leading citizens of McConnellsville, Morgan county, Ohio, where he was identified for a half century with all of its leading business and public interests, and where he died in April, 1899.

He served in the senate of the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth general assemblies from the Fourteenth senatorial district from 1860 to 1864. In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the Fifteenth district, Morgan, Monroe, Meigs, Washington and Athens counties, and was re-elected to the Forty-third congress from the same district in 1872. He was a merchant and was born in Morgan county May 27, 1827.

CHARLES FOSTER.

Charles Foster of Fostoria, Seneca county, served in congress, was governor of the state and secretary of the treasury. He was born in Seneca county, Ohio, April 12, 1828, and was educated in the public schools. For many years he was engaged in mercantile pursuits in Fostoria, with his father, and afterward on his own account. Later he engaged in banking, railway and manufacturing enterprises, and continued to reside in Fostoria until the close of the century. He entered congress in 1871, having been elected in 1870 to the Forty-second congress from the Ninth district, Seneca, Crawford, Huron, Erie, Sandusky and Ottawa counties. The apportionment of 1872 placed him in the Tenth district, Seneca, Hancock, Sandusky, Erie and Huron counties, from which he was re-elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872, to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876.

He was defeated for congress in 1890 by Darius D. Hare. He served with great distinction in congress, and was on nearly all the important committees of the house, being especially fitted for committee work. He made no pretense to the gifts and arts of the orator, but when he spoke on any question he was brief and plain and to the point. He was one of the original Republicans and always a consistent party that tolerant of those who differed from him. In 1879 he was a candidate for governor, and defeated his Democratic opponent, the younger, by a vote of 375,080 to 340,821. In 1881 he was a Republican candidate for governor, and was re-elected Democrat, by a vote of 312,735 to 243,016. In March, 1891, Governor Foster entered the cabinet of President Benjamin Harrison as secretary of the treasury, and managed the affairs of that department with great skill and ability until the close of the administration.

As the result of his many enterprises Governor Foster had accumulated a large fortune, all of which was swept away by the disastrous panic of 1893, and he was left with little to support him in his old age.

CHARLES N. LAMISON.

Charles N. Lamison of Lima, Allen county, was a lawyer and a Democratic leader of much influence in the northwestern part of the state. He was associated as counsel with Senator Calvin S. Brice in nearly all of his great railway enterprises from 1870 to 1890, as well as in the practice before the courts. He was a soldier and an officer in the Civil war.

In 1870 he was elected to the Forty-second congress from the Fifth district, composed of the counties of Allen, Van Wert, Mercer, Auglaize, Hardin, Hancock and Wyandot. In 1872, under a new apportionment, he was again elected from the Fifth district, embracing the counties of Allen, Defiance, Paulding, Putnam, Auglaize, Mercer and Shelby.

During his service in congress he was assigned to a number of the leading committees of the house, and was an efficient legislator. He was born in Columbia, Pennsylvania, in 1820.

MILTON SAYLER.

Milton Sayler was one of the brilliant lights of the Cincinnati bar for a quarter of a century, and after retiring from congress practiced law in New York city and Washington, D. C. He was born in Lewisburg, Preble county, Ohio, Nov. 4, 1831, and received his education mostly in the public schools, and graduated from Miami university, Oxford, Ohio, and from the Cincinnati Law school, and was admitted to the practice on reaching his majority and became a successful lawyer.

He was elected to the house of the Fifty-fifth general assembly in 1861 as one of the representatives from Hamilton county, and served one term in that body.

In 1872 he was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third congress from the First district, a part of Hamilton county, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth, in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876 from the same district. He was speaker of the house during a part of the Forty-fourth congress.

He took high rank as a member of congress during the six years of his service, and was placed on many of the most important committees of the house.

HENRY B. BANNING.

Henry Blackston Banning was born in Knox county, Ohio, Nov. 10, 1836, at what was known as Banning's Mills. He spent his boyhood days on a farm and about his father's extensive flouring mills, and began his education in the public schools and completed it in the Mt. Vernon Academy. He read law in the latter city and was admitted to the practice in 1857.

Originally he was a Whig, became a Republican, and in 1872, with the Greeley Liberal Republican movement, he affiliated with the Democratic party and defeated Rutherford B. Hayes for congress. At the close of the civil war he removed to Cincinnati, where he enjoyed a large and lucrative practice in his profession.

He enlisted as a private soldier in 1861, and by successive promotions, was mustered out of the service in 1865 with the rank of brigadier general, all his promotions coming for meritorious conduct. He was brevetted brigadier general for gallant conduct in the battle of Chickamauga. He participated in the battles of Nashville, Chickamauga, Atlanta and other important battles and military operations. He was a captain in the Fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry; major of the Fifty-second; lieutenant colonel of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth; Colonel of the Eighty-seventh and of the One Hundred and Ninety-fifth, and was in command at Alexandria at the time of his muster out.

While yet in the army, in 1865, he was elected to the house of representatives of the Fifty-seventh general assembly by the people of Knox county, both parties uniting in his support. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county, as a Democrat, and re-elected from the same district to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and to the Forty-fifth in 1876. He was chairman of the military committee, and on the judiciary and other important committees during his services in congress.

LEWIS B. GUNCKEL.

Lewis B. Gunckel of Dayton was born in Germantown, Ohio, Oct. 15, 1826. He graduated from the Farmers' college at Cincinnati in 1848, read law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and began practice at Dayton, where he became prominent in the profession. He was a Whig and afterward a Republican.

He was elected to the senate of the Fifty-fifth general assembly in 1861 and to the Fifty-sixth in 1863. He formulated measures for the relief of the dependent families of soldiers during the civil war and the act permitting soldiers to vote in the field.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Fourth district, Montgomery, Greene, Darke and Preble, and was defeated for the Forty-fourth by John A. McMahon. In 1871 he was appointed a special commissioner by President Grant to investigate the alleged frauds in the allotments to the Cherokee, Creek and Chickasaw Indians, and his exposures broke up the scandalous system of robbery which had prevailed for years.

JOHN Q. SMITH.

John Quincy Smith of Oakwood, Clinton county, was born near Waynesville, Warren county, Nov. 5, 1824. He attended the public schools, the Centerville academy, and graduated from the Miami university in 1844. After his graduation he resumed farming, and ten years later purchased and improved Oakwood farm, in Clinton county, where he continued to reside the remainder of the century.

When he was a young man he was a Whig, and then became a Free Soiler, being one of the most active delegates from Ohio to the Buffalo convention of 1848, and a member of the committee on resolutions. When the Republican party was organized, he affiliated with it until about the year 1880, when he drew away from it on the tariff issue, he opposing the "protective" idea, and joined the Democratic party.

He was a senator in the Fifty-fifth and again in the Sixty-fourth general assembly from the Fifth Senatorial district, Clinton, Greene and Fayette counties, and a representative from Clinton county in the Fifty-fifth general assembly, and was an efficient, practical legislator. He was a member of the state board of equalization in 1870-1871, having been elected without opposition.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Third district, Clinton, Warren, Butler, Fayette and Clermont counties, and served but a single term. He was a capable congressman, and his views commanded the highest respect. He failed of re-election, although a candidate, in 1874.

He was commissioner of Indian affairs from 1875 to 1877, and United States consul general at Montreal, Canada, from 1877 to 1882.

ST. PAUL SPEECH GARBLED.

Between Kansas City Platform
and Other Democrats.

New York, Aug. 20. — Governor Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay, L. I., gave out for publication a letter which he had written on Aug. 9 to General John M. Palmer, of Springfield, Ill., relative to the St. Paul speech made by the governor, in which he had been quoted as making derogatory remarks concerning Democrats. The letter said in part:

"I notice that in your recent very many interview stating why you could not support the Populistic Democracy and the Kansas City platform and nominees you allude to a statement I was supposed to have made, attacking Democrats generally in my St. Paul speech.

"You have evidently seen a report which was not merely garbled, but falsified. I stand by this speech absolutely, and have nothing to explain in connection with it; but I do wish to point out where its meaning was deliberately inverted.

"In my speech I began by saying: 'We appeal not only to Republicans, but to all good citizens who are Americans in fact as well as in name, to help us in re-electing President McKinley. I ended by saying, 'Study the Kansas City platform, and you cannot help realizing that their policy (the policy of its makers and sponsors) is a policy of infamy; that their triumph would mean misery so widespread that it is almost unthinkable and a disgrace so lasting that more than a generation would have to pass before it could be wiped out. They stand for lawlessness and disorder, for dishonesty and dishonor, for license and disaster at home and cowardly shrinking from duty abroad. We ask the support of all Americans who have the welfare of their country at heart, no matter what their political affiliations may have been in the past.'

"You will see that I here most explicitly draw the line between the men who support and ask support for the Kansas City platform and all other citizens, whether Democrats or republicans. I feel that, as a matter of fact, the greatest possible credit is due to men like you, my dear sir, and to the other Gold Democrats who, four years ago, stood and now stand for national honor.

"I hold up the policy advocated in the Kansas City platform as a base and cowardly policy, to emphasize our right to appeal to the countless thousands of high-minded Democrats who abhor baseness and cowardice, and are quick to see and disown them."

THE KELLY AX PLANT BURNED.

Was Valued at About $800,000 — Not in the Trust.

Alexandria, Ind., Aug. 20.—The entire plant of the Kelly Ax Manufacturing company, valued at $800,000, was destroyed by fire. It was the largest ax factory in the world, employing some 800 or 1,000 men when running at full force. The company had just enlarged the factory, increasing the output fully one-third.

The fire started in the grinding department of the ax factory. A strong wind carried the flames to the pump house and doomed the entire works to destruction. In a short time the whole plant, covering 10 acres, was reduced to ashes. It was the only plant not in the trust; was valued at nearly a million dollars, and was expected to be taken out of the receiver's hands next January. So far as known, no one was hurt.

The insurance was thought to be about $450,000.

COURTESY TO THE CUBANS.

Washington, Aug. 20.—With cheers for Cuba, the United States, President McKinley and last, if not least their hosts, the people of the District of Columbia, the 1,400 Cuban school teachers left the city over the Pennsylvania railroad for New York. After the greater portion of the week spent there and in Philadelphia the entire party will embark on transport for Havana. The visitors were tired out thoroughly by their experiences of Saturday and enjoyed a good rest Saturday night. After an early breakfast Sunday most of them attended a solemn requiem mass at St. Patrick's church. After church they returned to the hotels, where they were grouped in squads and taken to the capitol, arriving there about 10 o'clock. The building was thrown open to the visitors and a detachment of guards was on hand to escort them. Coming back to their hotels they remained for a short while and then boarded the electric cars and went to the railroad station, where the special trains awaited them to carry the party to New York. A large crowd of Washington people were at the depot to see the visitors off and bid them godspeed on their journey.

The Cubans affectionately greeted General Cisneros, the former president of Cuba, who is in the city. Many of them threw their arms around the old veteran's neck and covered his gray bearded face with kisses. The mention of his name was a signal for a vociferous demonstration, ending in cheers for the "future president of Cuba." The whole party was delighted with their experiences in all the American cities they have visited and with their reception by the president Saturday.

SEVERE DROUGHT IN KANSAS.

Crops of That State May Be Materially Affected.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Two-thirds of Kansas west of the three easternmost rivers of counties is experiencing one of the most severe droughts in the history of the state, and the general opinion is that the Kansas crop will be the smallest in proportion to its requirements, for feeding that has been raised in many years. In 1899 it was 225,000,000 bushels. Secretary Coburn's report of conditions on Aug. 4 indicated a yield this year of about 145,000,000 bushels. Since then there have been two weeks of hot, dry weather, which has further materially reduced conditions and the most liberal estimates of well-informed men on 'change do not exceed 100,000,000 bushels, while many place the crop at not over 75,000,000 bushels.

JUDGE SMYTH DEAD.

He Was Recovering From Vertigo When He Contracted Pneumonia.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 20.—Judge Frederick Smyth, of the Supreme Court of the state of New York and former recorder, aged 65, died at the Hotel Denis. The dead jurist, in broken physical condition, came to Atlantic City on July 2, with the intention of spending the summer here to recuperate. He gained strength rapidly until July 20, when he was suddenly overcome with an attack of vertigo.

Under skillful medical treatment he was gradually recovering from the attack when he contracted a heavy cold last Thursday. This settled on his lungs and developed into pneumonia. His undermined health could not withstand the new affliction.
